

unshaken confidence in God as his reconciled Father. A short time before death the Lord manifested Himself to him in a glorious and triumphant manner. He exclaimed, "Is this death? I have had a first view of the promised land. I am going home—going home, to die no more,—Hallelujah. Praise the Lord!" He died in great peace, at Liverpool, October 13th, 1861, in the 29th year of his age, and eighth of his ministry.

3. HENRY HOLLAND, who was born of Wesleyan Parents, in the year 1830. At the age of fifteen years he was unmistakably converted to God. Henceforth his piety was elevated, intelligent, and decided. He was affectionate and consistent in his friendship, while a noble disinterestedness very much adorned his Christian character. In the year 1851 he was placed in the Local Preachers' Plan of the Fifth Manchester Circuit, and, being subsequently convinced of his call to the regular work of the Ministry, he left England in 1856, and joined the E. B. A. Conference. On several of our Circuits he labored with great zeal and ability, and often with blessed success. At the close of the last Conference he obtained leave to visit his native land, with the hope that his health, which had been impaired during the previous winter, might be thereby restored. In this he was disappointed, as he gradually sank into weakness and death. Some of his last words were, "Christ is precious," "All is well," "Precious Jesus—Jesus!" He expired on the 24th December, 1861, in the 31st year of his age, and in the sixth year of his ministry.

4. WILLIAM C. MCKINNON, who was born at Sydney, Cape Breton. He was brought to a saving knowledge of the truth soon after he arrived at the years of manhood. His conviction for sin and ultimate conversion were produced by the Spirit of God through the instrumentality of a watch-night service. He repaired to a Wesleyan place of worship, during the solemn services of that night. He entered the chapel as the congregation was engaged in silent prayer. There it was that the Divine Spirit awakened his mind, and finally by His influences he experienced redemption through the blood of Christ, even the forgiveness of sins. Shortly
