

pletion of the prescribed studies, graduation diplomas will be awarded.

Frequent written and oral examinations are conducted to stimulate thoroughness and test the efficiency of the work done.

Matriculation Course.

Junior Year.

AUTUMN TERM.—Arithmetic through fractions, Elementary Grammar, Archer's Short History of Canada, Geography with Map Drawing, Spelling and Dictation.

WINTER TERM.—Arithmetic, Kirkland and Scott's completed. Algebra, Hall & Knight's, Chapters I-VIII, also Chap. XIX. Latin, Beginner's Latin Book, Collar and Daniell, Elements of Grammar continued. British History, Collier. Reading and Penmanship. Manual Training.

Middle Year.

AUTUMN TERM.—Arithmetic, Hamblin Smith's, Sects. I-XIV. Algebra, Hall & Knight's, Chaps. X-XVIII. Latin, Collar's Gate to Caesar, with review of Beginner's Latin Book. English, Swinton's Etymology and Syntax. Physical Geography. Letter Writing. Manual Training.

WINTER TERM, 1st QUARTER.—Arithmetic, Sects. XV-XXIII. Algebra, Chapters IX-XXIII. Geometry, Hall & Stevens, Book I, (with exercises) begun. Latin, Gate to Cæsar continued, Cæsar Book IV begun. Greek, White's Beginner's Book. French, Otto's Grammar. English, Grammar, Analysis of sentences. Essays monthly. Manual Training.

2nd QUARTER.—Arithmetic, Sects. XXIII-XXX. Geometry, Book I., completed. Latin, Cæsar, Book IV, completed. Greek, White's Beginner's Book, completed. French, Otto's Grammar. English, Swinton's Composition. Word Analysis begun. Essays Monthly.