Mr. Parnell retorted that Mr. Trevelyan had not given the date and title of the paper from which he quoted. He (Parnell) possessed verbatim reports of his Cincinnati speeches, which showed that he had not used such words.

Proceeding with his speech, Mr. Trevelyan said that the chief objection to the Land Purchase bill was that the measure would prove ruinous to the country. He asked why the government could not alter the present bill to meet the objections of some of its most faithful followers. (Cries of "Oh!" and cheers.)

Mr. Healy taunted Mr. Trevelyan with having no alternative proposals. He accused Mr. Trevelyan of burning copies of the Irish World directed to Parnellities.
