

prietors thereof, and to the tolls to be levied for passing thereon in virtue of this Act, save and except that it shall not from thenceforward be lawful for 5 any person to pass any of the fords in the said river with horses, cattle or carriages or other animals or vehicles subject to tolls under the said Ordinance or any Act amending the same, or to cross any such
 10 horses, cattle or carriages, animals or vehicles over the same in canoes or boats or otherwise either with or without gain or hire within the utmost limits of the exclusive privilege heretofore granted to or 15 enjoyed by the proprietors of the said Bridge; and persons offending against this clause shall be subject to the penalty imposed by the thirty-third section of the said Ordinance.

20 V. And be it enacted, That the provisions of the said Ordinance, and the powers of the Trustees appointed under the authority thereof, shall extend to the roads and parts
 25 of roads hereinafter mentioned and described as fully to all intents and purposes whatsoever as if the said roads and parts of roads had been mentioned and described in the ninth section of the said Ordinance, as among those to which the said provisions
 30 and powers should extend, that is to say:

Certain roads near Quebec placed under the control of the Trustees.

1stly. The road leading from Dorchester Bridge aforesaid to the Church of the Parish of Charlesbourg.

35 2ndly : the road leading from the Bridge over the River Montmorency near the great fall on the said River, as far as the boundary line between the Parishes of l'Ange Gardien and Chateau Richer, in continuation of the road seventhly described in the said Ordinance.
 40

3rdly. The road leading from the said Church of the Parish of Charlesbourg to the Indian Village of Lorette.

4thly. The road leading from the said
 54 village to the road commonly called "Route