

Provincial Constitutions—continued.

of Parliament, 93 (4), 95.—Any Act of Parliament for rendering uniform, in all the Provinces, the Laws relative to Property and Civil rights, and the Procedure of the Courts, shall not have effect in any Province, until enacted as law by the Legislature thereof, 94. See also Amendments.

Constitution of the Province; May be amended by Provincial Legislature, except as regards the office of Lieut.-Governor, 92 (1).]

Provincial Revenues :—See Public Revenues.

Public Debt :

The Public Debt, and the raising of money by taxation, or loan, for general purposes, are under control of Parliament, 91 (1, 3, 4).

Interest thereon made a second charge on Consol. Revenue Fund, 104.

Canada liable for the whole of the debts existing at the Union, 111.

Proportion for which Ontario and Quebec are liable, 112.—Nova Scotia, 114, 116.—New Brunswick, 115, 116.

The interest on their proportion of the debt, to be deducted from the grants to the respective Provinces, 118.

Adjustment of liabilities, &c., of Ontario and Quebec, 142.

Public Offices and Officers :

Of the Dominion; Under the control of Parliament, 91 (8).

The establishment of Provincial Offices, and appointment and salaries of Officers, are under Provincial control, 92 (4).—Heads of Departments specified (Ontario and Quebec), 134.—Their functions, 135.

Public Officers continued in office, 130.—New Officers may be appointed, 131.

Public Property :

Of Canada :—All cash and other assets of each Province, 107.—Certain Public Works and Property, 108. (Schedule 3).—Lands for fortifications and defences, 117.—Public Property is not liable to taxation, 125.

Of the Provinces :—All Lands, Mines, &c., in the respective Provinces, and sums due thereon, 109.—

Assets connected with any portions of the Public Debt