

Messrs. Arthur D. Little, Limited, of Cambridge, Mass., who have favored the Forestry Journal with the above illustration state that two thirds of a long leaf pine tree is discarded as waste and that only one third actually becomes merchandise.