

THEY LOOK AT HER FEET NOW.

From the New York Times.
Have you heard of the new science of chiropody? No! Well, this is how it evolved. Everything is evolved these days. A certain young and handsome student of the hand called on a pretty married lady to—well, tell her fortune, for is not that his profession? It was at an hour when the husband was not expected home, but some unusual accident brought him to his domicile during the session of the young man's patient. He walked noiselessly to his wife's apartment, as all husbands do, in the stories, you know. He passed through the doorway, as in duty bound, thinking he heard a significant "smoke." I suppose he was mistaken, for all he saw was the young man peering on the floor, while in front of him sat this dapper doctor's wife. Her pretty, bare feet were resting on a blue plush footstool (how becoming blue plush is to pink toes!), and her shapely, white ankles, and—well, there was a frosty foundation of white lace too. The young scientist who spied the entrance of the husband by his reflection in a mirror, nodded blandly to the girl in salutation and said: "Yes, indeed, my dear Mrs., when I find the hand lines as faint as yours are, a much more satisfactory result is to be obtained by an examination of the soles of the feet."

—Young and middle-aged men, suffering from nervous debility and all hypochondria, should enclose 10 cents in stamps for large illustrated treatise suggesting sure means of cure. Large, Dr. W. D. Dunning, Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

—"I have pleasure in saying that Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam cannot be excelled for curing colds, coughs, and loss of voice. It cured my brother completely." So says Mr. McLeod of Poplar Hill, Ont., regarding this reliable remedy.

Old earrings which were worn by duchesses and other grand ladies who lived in former times and used as pendants on a black neck ribbon is the latest fad.

—Having the utmost confidence in its superiority over all others, and after thousands of tests of the most complicated and severe cases we could find, we feel justified in offering to forfeit One Thousand Dollars for any loss of voice, cold, sore throat, influenza, whooping-cough and all diseases of the throat and lungs, except asthma, for which we only claim relief, that we can't cure with West's Cough Syrup, when taken according to directions. Sample bottles 25c and 50c. Large bottles $1.00. Genuine wrapper only in blue sold by all druggists, or sent by express on receipt of price. John C. West & Co., Toronto.

Mrs. John C. Miller of Keytesville, Mo., has a ship biscuit which, it is said, was brought from England in 1880, and which has been handed down from generation to generation. It is kept in a glass bottle and is as hard as a boarding-house roll.

—Bickie's Anti-Consumptive Syrup stands at the head of the list for all diseases of the throat and lungs. It acts like magic in breaking up a cold. A cough is soon subdued, the tightness of the chest is relieved, even the worst case of consumption is relieved, while in recent cases it may be said never fail. It is a medicine prepared from the active principles of various medicinal herbs, and can be depended upon for all pulmonary complaints.

—We will pay the above reward for any case of liver complaint, dyspepsia, sick headache, indigestion, constipation, or any other ailment which West's Vegetable Liver Pills, when the directions are strictly complied with. They are sold by all druggists, or sent by express on receipt of price. The genuine manufactured only by John C. West & Co., Toronto.

The first piano which left Erard's manufacturing works, 1780, is in the market. It was purchased by the daughter and heiress of Garat, the singer, to Mr. Blavat, with instructions to sell it for the benefit of the poor of her native city.

—There is danger in neglecting a cold. Many who have died of consumption dated their troubles from exposure, followed by a cold which settled on their lungs, and in a short time they were beyond the skill of the best physicians. Had they used Bickie's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been saved. The medicine has no equal for curing colds, croup, and all affections of the throat and lungs.

An eastern zoologist recently paid $500 for four crowned pigeons. They were of a steel blue color, and were almost as large as turkeys, and the crest is composed of a row of gray feathers standing upright.

No sufferer from any scrofulous disease, who will fairly try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, need despair of a cure. This remedy purges the blood of all impurities, destroys the germs of scrofula, and infuses new life and vigor throughout the physical organization.

The purified wood introduced as "Vigor's" eye, and used for watch-glasses, has sunk to the grade of umbrella handles, and a column of it, surrounded by a ball, is a fashionable design in London.

—Does not delay in getting relief for the little dole, Mother Graves' Worm Expeller is a pleasant and sure cure. If you love your child why do you let it suffer when a remedy is so near at hand?

The latest piece of corporation coolness in Boston is the stringing of an electric cable from tree to tree the whole length of the Beacon-street mall, thus turning them into telegraph poles.

—There are a number of varieties of corns. Holloway's Corn Cure will remove the cause of Chambrion into Paris is now the state carriage of the Queen of Greece. She paid $5000 for it.

Stop that cough, by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral—the best specific for all throat and lung diseases. It will soothe inflammation, and strengthen the vocal organs. Ayer's Almanacs are free to all. Ask for one.

—If you suffer from headache, dizziness, back ache, biliousness or indigestion of the blood, try Burdock Blood Bitters. It is a guaranteed cure for all irregularities of blood, liver and kidneys.

President Dwight of Yale has sent a Hartford made toboggan as a Christmas gift to the Dean of Canterbury.

—O. E. Constable, Caledonia, Minn., writes: "I was suffering from the most excruciating pains from inflammatory rheumatism. One application of Dr. T. J. Ryan's Electric Oil afforded almost instant relief, and two bottles effected a permanent cure."

Music, But no Flowers, at This Funeral.
—From the Victoria, B. C. Times.
Jacob Bruce is a low fellow who kept a square dance house on the line of the Canadian Pacific, in British Columbia, all the way along the line until the first train ran through from Montreal to Burrard Inlet. He had along the route, two blooming English women, whom he had taken from the deck of an immigrant steamer at Quebec. When the railroad got within five miles of Calgary his wife was taken ill and died. She was buried in a little graveyard on the outskirts of a village near by, and the land owner, after the dancing was concluded the corpse started back to the East. It was at this point that the first train of the road, the night Bruce drove into Calgary and married his sister-in-law.

—Mr. W. Thayer, Wright, P. Q., had dyspepsia for twenty years. Tried many doctors and doctors, but got no relief. His appetite was very poor, had a distressing pain in his side and stomach, and gradual wasting away of flesh, which he could not get rid of until he commenced taking Nutriphyl and Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. The pains have left and he rejoices in the enjoyment of excellent health, in fact he is quite a new man.

—J. R. Faithful, of Stroud, Ont., says he suffered from quinsy for several years, until cured by Hagyard's Yellow Ointment, which is a specific for all painful complaints.
