CYCLISTS!

This could be YOU! (but it's really Kent Bostick)

Come out and work off that hot dog and beer belly. The season is only one month away!

Fredericton Spring Training Rides*

Every Saturday Leaving at 11:30 am

From the Sheraton Inn parking lot on Woodstock Rd. -2-4 hours long

-60-120 kilometers Depending on the weather

Beginning tomorrow Continuing through April Meet superstar Kevin Besner featured on page 29.

for more info call Bruce at 454-8095. All serious cyclists in horrible shape welcome

St. FX rules at CIAU's

by Charlie Cook Curtis Cox

Halifax is a great basketball battle. The X-men came through gave us a big lift.

contender in the AUAA; on balance the nation's strongest hoarseness. "His teams play soft too slow" were common coach K. But not this year. The ride around the Metro Center

Four years ago Konchalski recruited three French-speaking town. We know this because the lads from Bangui in the Central eight teams who compete in the African Republic: Richard Bella AUAA (the UNB Red Raiders (6-9), Aristide Nguilibet (6-8) and included) could all count on Guy Mbongo (6-6). Bella, being having the city rally behind them the tallest and strongest, has come CIAU tournament time. carried some leadweight This year St. Francis Xavier expectations on his back since carried the hopes of Maritimers then. His game can't be called and X students and alumni into polished, and maybe never will, but what he lacked in skill was in the 3-day endurance test and made up for with heart and hustle. In the final against In doing the job, X made McMaster, Bella had 17 history while overcoming it. rebounds, 4 steals, 1 block and They have been a perennial 32 points - and deserved his tourney MVP award.

The Final was a treat to watch conference these last three with Bella squaring off against decades. But X had acquired the McMaster's Jack Vanderpol in a reputation of not living up to battle of good "big men". When their potential and worse, of the dust cleared at halftime, being a team that folded in a big St.F.X. enjoyed a 38-33 lead. McMaster challenged the lead The focus of this perception throughout the second half, but had become X coach Steve the X-Men's stingy defense kept Konchalski, the Yank who the Marauders from getting too suffers from persistent close, holding them to 38% field goal percentage and giving up in the clutch" or "they adjust way only three 3-pointers in 25 attempts. In the end, St.F.X. observations reflecting directly on triumphed 72-64, despite shooting only 48% from the foul X-men played a gritty, scrappy line. Bella led all X scorers, tourney, especially defensively, while Vanderpol added 19 points and Konchalski got a shoulder and 18 rebounds for the St.F.X. began the tournament with a tight 83-80 upset over Calgary. Guy Mbongo came off the bench to lead the X-Men with 26 points. They went on to defeat Ottawa 64-54 in the semifinals holding the Gee-Gees to 34% field goal percentage and only 24 points in the second half.

X started their road to the CIAU's by squeaking into the AUAA playoffs with a win over Dalhousie in their last regular season game. They went on to defeat the UCCB Capers 72-69 in the AUAA semi-finals by virtue of a 3-point hail Mary shot from half court at the final buzzer, then rolled over St. Mary's in the final 84-71.

McMaster handled the Brandon Bobcats in the first round, but had to prove themselves in the second round against Concordia. In the closest game of the tournament, McMaster came back from 13 points down in the second half to win by one point on a running one-hander by guard Marc Sontrop with seven seconds

McMaster earned a CIAU wild card berth after finishing first in the OUAA West, despite being upset in the conference semi-final 95-85 by Western Ontario.

ATTENTION!

The Brunswickan

is looking for a someone to fill the position of

Co-Sports Editor with Bruce Denis for 1993-94

No experience necessary Benefits include:

-Power, power, power!

-Honoraria

-Full press credentials

-Travel

UNB athletic club membership

-looks great on a resumé

If interested, please contact the Bruns at 453-4983...

