

and occupy the piece of land required for the purposes of a roadway, in view of the band's unwillingness to surrender.

There is the further question which should not be lost sight of that inasmuch as the road allowance around the sections is available how far pressure should be exercised to obtain a road running diagonally simply for the purpose of economizing distance.

Francis [unclear]