

I assume that Mr. Williams' appointment to the Battledore Agency as the Agency at present stands will be for a comparatively short term and that he will have to be removed to some one or other of the smaller Agencies into which the Battledore District will be divided. In such case, it would not, I think, do to promise to continue Mr. Williams at a salary of $1200 per annum, as the same would be in conflict with the Order in Council which prescribes that those appointed to these smaller Agencies shall receive
