

Ottawa, 9th December, 1911.

Sir:-

The Department desires to be informed why you have failed to send in your store returns for June and September quarters. As intimated in letter of the 23rd October they should be forwarded without delay. I may say the Department proposes holding your salary cheque and the cheque of your clerk until the returns in question are received.

Your obedient servant.

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

J. P. G. Day, Esq.,

Indian Agent,

Battleford, Sask.
