

"Keep in touch with the folks at home"

ON ACTIVE SERVICE with the
CANADIAN FORCES

194

May it please the court On behalf of the accused, Sgt. Wallace may I submit to the court a brief summary in defence of his case

On the 20th of Dec. Sgt. Wallace suffering from a touch of flu and under medical care was on duty as usual. After lunch he went to the unit wash but there was no job in for attention. In the short time at lunch hour he went to a neighbouring Public house and had a few drinks. This in itself is no crime as Public houses are not out of bounds to this unit at any time.

Later the accused returned to the garage & there were still no details to perform, as a truck was going up to the Transport office, some distance away, he rode up in it. Then

Think

Any reference to shipping or troop movements will result in the delay or mutilation of this letter.

who are fixing the camera & who never turn out