

ducks in September and prairie chickens in October, the wing shot is a busy man—as busy as he chooses to make himself.

Sixteen hours of sunshine; summer days that are bright, beautiful, alluring; a city where there is the greatest variety of games on earth; a country beautiful to look upon and alive with game and fish; dependable weather; the boundless sky overhead and the almost boundless prairie underfoot; with these elements of sport and joy, the man who cannot take his full of happiness of summer sports in Winnipeg must be more than hard to suit; he must be an incorrigible.

TO THE MANUFACTURER:

Western Canada is a big field, filled with a prosperous people. The remarkable development taking place is creating an unprecedented demand for home industries. Winnipeg, the natural supply centre, wants these manufacturers and offers greater combined advantages in cheap power, light, sites, low taxation, labor conditions, railway facilities, banking, etc., than any city in Canada.
