

- Fiction on the South, bibliography of, 241-42
- Field, Marshall, and Company own mills in North Carolina, 95
- Finance, problem in South, 22; repudiation of state debts, 22, 227-33; economies of new state governments, 24-25; platform of National Alliance and Knights of Labor on, 34; subtreasury plan, 34-35; merchants as bankers, 61-65; crop lien, 62-63; Farm Loan Act, 84; see also Tariff, Taxation
- Fisk University, 179
- Fleming, W. L., The Sequel of Appomattox, cited, 2 (note), 27 (note); Civil War and Reconstruction in Alabama, cited, 227 (note)
- Florida, end of carpetbag rule in, 9; mines, 102; cigar industry, 104; bonds as part of Peabody Fund, 167; migration to, 194; debt, 227
- Freedmen's Aid Societies, schools for negroes opened by, 173
- Freedmen's Bureau, 27
- French in Louisiana, 6
- Friends, Society of, influence in South, 16
- Garland, A. H., of Arkansas, 28
- General Education Board, 76-77, 183-84, 186, 189
- Georgia, Democratic convention (1890), 37; Populist party (1892), 42; cotton mills, 88, 97; knitting industry, 98; cottonseed oil industry, 100; fertilizer industry, 100; lynchings in, 155; school fund (1817), 158 (note); imports, 195; Catholics in, 214; repudiation of debt, 229
- Girls' canning clubs, 80
- Gordon, J. B., 13, 37
- Grady, H. W., uses expression "New South," 7-8; editor of Atlanta Constitution, 223
- Grange movement, 29, 31-33
- Great War, negroes in knitting mills during, 126; migration of negroes to North during, 132-33; negro women in Red Cross work, 149; and capital in South, 196; South and, 201; and nationalism, 210-11
- Greenback movement, 25, 29-30
- Hamilton, J. G. de R., Reconstruction in North Carolina, cited, 228 (note)
- Hampton, Wade, 13, 41
- Hampton Institute, 174, 177, 178
- Hookworm disease, 73-74
- Howard University, 179
- Hughes, C. E., North Carolina vote for (1916), 57
- Industries, vegetable growing, 84; industrial development, 86 et seq.; textile, 88-98, 106-21, 126-27; manufacture of cottonseed products, 99-100; fertilizers, 100; lumbering, 100, 123-24; iron, 101; wood, 101; steel, 101-102; mining, 102; tobacco, 102-04, 124-26; roller mills, 104; close to raw material, 194-95; see also Agriculture, Cotton
- Jeanes, Anna T., 183
- Jeanes Fund, 183, 184
- Kelley, O. H., 31
- Kellogg, W. P., Governor of Louisiana, 229
- Kentucky, as Southern State, 5; Grange in, 32; mines,