

ment of the Society, expressly on the ground that their authority as Visitors under the statute did not extend to control any such proceedings of the Convocation.

12. Resolved—That under the Act of Parliament of the 37th Geo. III., Cap. 13, the approbation of the Judges is necessary only to the “Rules of the Society,” that is, to such regulations as provide for the general government of the Society at large, or, as being general in their operation contain provision by which persons not members of the Convocation may be directly affected, and such are in no respect binding on the Society, or any member of it, until the Judges of the Province have duly approved thereof according to law.

13. Resolved—That, to “The Resolutions of the Convocation,” that is, to such resolutions as are merely explanatory of the sense entertained by the Benchers, of existing rules or regulations, or upon other matters connected with the profession, the approbation of the Judges is in no wise necessary, but such are in every respect effectual for the purposes intended, and binding upon the Society at large, and upon every member thereof without such approbation.

14. Resolved—That, to “The Standing Orders of the Convocation,” that is, to such regulations of the Convocation as provide merely for the regulation of its own proceedings as a body, the approbation of the Judges is in no wise necessary, but such are in every respect effectual for the purposes intended, and binding upon the Society at large, and upon every member thereof without such approbation.

15. Resolved—That, to “To the Particular Orders of the Convocation,” that is, to such orders as are given by the Convocation in directing the executive business of the Institution, the approbation of the Judges is in no wise necessary, but such are in every respect effectual for the purposes intended, and binding upon the Society at large, and upon every member thereof without such approbation.
