

and the healthful preservative power together with early planting, will save from the rot. By the last week in toes will have attained their full may as well be dug.—For two or three I left England, I planted my potatoes last week in January, and the weeks in February. By doing so, I dig them early in July, free from rot, my neighbours and others for mine sound seed potatoes. I have resided