

and landed free of duty, as if the said goods were reported, entered, and landed at the said free port of Gaspé Basin, or have been there first reported, entered and landed—and provision shall be made under proper regulations for the entry of goods at the said places in the manner aforesaid. As regards the exportation of fish, fish-oil, or any other of the products of the fisheries of the River and Gulf of St. Lawrence and of the Bay of Chaleurs, such exportation may be made direct from New Carlisle, or from Percé or from Amherst aforesaid, as well as from the free port of Gaspé Basin, subject to such further regulations as may hereafter be made by competent authority in reference to such exportation and the clearing of the said goods and the vessels on board of which the same may be shipped."

Saint Ste. Marie.—"Commencing on the north shore of Lake Huron, at the point of intersection of the principal meridian line with the waters of Lake Huron near Waddell's Mills, then southerly and westerly to the most south-easterly point of Lonely Islands, thence westerly to the most southerly point of Fitz-William Island, thence due west to the intersection of the boundary line between our province and the United States of America, thence following the said boundary line northerly and westerly to the westerly boundary of our province, thence northerly along the westerly boundary of our province to the northerly boundary of our province, then easterly along the said northerly boundary of our province to the intersection of the aforesaid principal meridian line produced northerly, thence due south along the said principal meridian line and prolongation thereof to the place of beginning, and that the following regulations and conditions shall regulate and govern the said free port of Saint Ste. Marie and the district herein attached thereto, that is to say:—1. All goods, wares, and merchandize which shall have been first duly imported and entered at the free port of Saint Ste. Marie, may go into consumption free of duty, within the district hereinbefore attached to the free port of Saint Ste. Marie;—2. All goods, wares, and merchandize which shall be found within the limits of the said free port, or of the district hereinbefore attached thereto, and which shall not have been duly reported and entered at the Custom House of the said free port of Saint Ste. Marie, or which cannot be shown to have been duly customed at some other port of entry in our said province, shall be deemed to have been imported contrary to Customs Laws of our said province, and be liable to confiscation and forfeiture under the said laws."