champion was Humeshaugh Kate 3rd, the senior calf.

the senior calf.
At London, as at Toronto, the herd of Wm. Stewart, of Menie was missing. This is the first year in over 30 that the Stewart herd has not appeared on the show circuit. At Chicago,
Mr. Stewart did much at the time of the World's Fair there, to put Cau-adian Ayrshires on the map. Since then he has worked consistently for the good of h's breed and he leaves the show circuit with the good wishes -and the regrets-of a host of friends. Many of them were asking for him at London

The Jersey Sections

T. LITTLE, of London, had out all of his Toronto stock with a few additions. B. H. Bull and Son, Brampton, had divided their herd, sending part to Ottawa, but, in deference to the competition of the Little herd, the strongest half by a considerable margin was at London and much the same animals faced each other in the various classes. Mr. Tom O'Brien, London, had out some very nice animals and secured a fair share of the money. Mrs. Lawrence had out a few young animals.

There was no competition in aged There was no competition in aged bulls. Bonnie's Perfection from the Brampton herd being the only entry and also grand champion. The same-herd had first two-year-old. In junior yearlings Mr. O'Brien got first on a bull of his own breeding. Mr. Little had an entry here that looked good for had an entry here that looked good for first except that it was badly off in its hind feet and went down to third. Mr. O'Prien also secured the junior year-ling red ribbon with a growthy, well constituted calf of his breeding. The senior calf class had the junior chanplon in Hazelden Autor. a fine quality, stylish youngster.

In the three-year-old class, the Toronto grand champion, Brampton Inna Oxford, was decide'ly Brampton Inna Oxford, was accused to off color and went to second these in her class. The class for two-year olds in milk brought out a beautiful helfer with a perfect udder in Brampton Somata, and this helfer won the senior championship over Br. Gloss Maif, the senior warning exhibited by Little senior warning exhibited by Little senior yearling exhibited by Little Beauty Maid was again first in the dry Beauty Maid was again first in the dry cow-class. The herd of Juo. Prinds, usually a feature of the Jersey section at London, was much missed this year. With Pringle out at London to take the place of the Fleming herd at To-ronto, London would have had a phe-omenal showing of this breed. Awards in full follow
