Our New Sunday-School Paper.

At the request of the Sunday-School Committee of the three Western Conferences a new Sunday-School paper is being prepared, to be issued on alternate weeks with PLEASANT HOURS," so that Schools may have a paper for every Sunday in the year. It will be the same size and price as "PLEASANT HOURS," and in every respect its equal, if not its superior. The paper will be named and its object will be to make home happy, and the Sunday-School more than ever a grand nucles. It will be, it is confidently anticit ated, the handsomest paper ever issued in the Dominion. It is determined to greatly improve the character also of "PLEASANT HOURS." using better paper, better ink, and better engravings, so that these two papers may defy using better paper, better ina, and better engravings, so that these two papers may defy competition, and prove themselves the best papers in the world for our Sunday-Schools.

"HOME AND SCHOOL."

While seeking to combine all the excellencies of "Pleasant Hours," "Home and School" will also have special features of its own. Great prominence will be given to the subject of Christian missions, especially those of our own Church, both in Japan and among the Indian tribes of the North-west and the Pacific coast. Special attention shall also be given to Temperance, and a series of boys' and girls' temperance lessons, will be a feature of much importance. Special prominence will also be given to the Sun-day-school lessons; and Lesson Notes different from those given in either "PLEASANT day-school lessons; and Lesson Notes different from those given in either "PLEASANT HOURS" or "Sunbbam," will be given for every Sunday in the year.

A specimen copy is being prepared as fast as possible, and will be mailed to all our schools as soon as ready. We hope to receive very large orders for this new paper. It is only a large circulation which can prevent it being a less at the low subscription price:
