The Testimony of Science to the Credibility of the Book of Jonah

A VINDICATION OF THE NARRATIVE OF HIS ADVENTURE WITH THE WHALE

REV. J. W. BEAUMONT, D.D., M.D.

In Pamphlet Form, Price Five Cents.

Canadian Churchman Office, 36 Toronto Street, Toronto, Ont.

By the will of Mrs. Smith, for many years a devoted member of Grace Church, Manchester, N. H., that parish will receive $15,000 now, and is one of the three residuary legatees of the estate.

The Church of the Holy Communion, New York, is to have a memorial vestibule, to cost $5,000. It will be of brick and brown-stone, of Gothic design, with a frontage of 25.4 feet and a depth of 12.2 feet. There will be a large door-way for this vestibule which will be on the west facade of the church, and there will be granite steps between two illuminated panel windows. The interior of the vestibule will be walled with decorated artificial Caen stone set with clustered marble columns and paved with marble with a marble seat beneath one of the panel windows.

The beautiful old church at Marshfield, near Cardiff, was lately opened by the Bishop Llandaff, after being closed for nearly two years for restoration. The service was a combination of the S.P.C.K. form of dedication and the Confirmation Service, some 20 candidates being presented. The church, which is a twelfth-century structure, has been most beautifully restored. A magnificent roof of English oak, which is believed to be unsurpassed in Wales, is quite a feature. A number of bosses on the outside of the timber give the history of the church from its foundation. Some idea of what a grand work has been carried out may be gathered from the fact that upwards of 5,000l. has been spent upon it.

The estate of the Rev. John W. Kaye, whose death took place lately, amounting to $80,000, with the exception of $6,000 left to relatives, goes to charity and the Church. Four thousand dollars is left to St. Simeon's, Philadelphia, in trust, the interest to be used exclusively "for the ringing of the Kaye memorial chimes" which the deceased and his father placed in the tower of that church some years ago. To Princeton University is left $5,000 for the "Thomas and Lucy Kaye Scholarship." The residue of the estate in one-fifth shares goes to the Evangelical Educational Society, the Episcopal Hospital, the Endowment Fund of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Kensington, Philadelphia, All Saint's Church, Norristown, Pa., and St. David's, Manayunk, Philadelphia.
