Letter

From Germany [By Special Wire to the Courier] TORONTO, Sept. 18-One of the young ladies, who holds a position the staff of the Royal Ontario Museum of Toronto, has received a letter from two girl friends in German with whom she became acquainted during a prolonged visit two years ago. The writers reside on the out-skirts of Berlin and are members of a family who are in rather good fin-ancial standing.

"We are so pleased to think that LONDON, Sept. 18- The corres-bandent of The Times at Ghent be-Berlin," the letter reads, "and they LONDON, Sept. 10- The left be-pandent of The Times at Ghent be-lieves that most of the recent Ger-man raiding in various parts of man raiding in various parts of
