and inspect his large stock of Household Necessaries.

FRESH AND RELIABLE.
We do a large and constantly increasing trade, and this means that our stock is always fresh and reliable.

In addition to a full range of General Groceries, we have Flour, Meal, Crockery, Glassware, Lard, etc.

This fall we are offering extra value in Stone Jars and Crocks.—See them.

R. J. SEYMOUR,
MAIN STREET, ATHENS.

New Fall Shoes ARE NOW IN.

Never before did we have as large an assortment of Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, Trunks and Valises. Our steadily increasing trade requires it.

In addition to selling our shoes at lower prices than other dealers, we propose to give every purchaser a chance of getting quite a large sum of money that has been placed in a lottery. See our list of prizes.

HOW IT IS DONE.
We have had made for us a number of keys, only one of which will unlock the glass safety money box. The keys are placed in each purchase until Dec. 31st, 1897, when key-holders will be given an opportunity of getting quite a large sum of money that has been placed in a lottery. See our list of prizes.

THIS SPACE FOR SALE

London, Sept. 6.—A special despatch from Berlin says that Herr Krupp, the ironmaster, has withdrawn his offer of £25,000 to equip the next expedition of Dr. Peters to Africa owing to the sentence recently passed upon the doctor.

Private War 93000
Tangier, Morocco, Sept. 6.—The pirates belonging to the Rocca Kabylie, who about the middle of last month boarded and sacked the Italian brigantine Padrona, and captured her captain and crew, have agreed to release their prisoners in exchange for the Italian brigantine Padrona, and upon the payment of a ransom of $3000.

London, Sept. 7.—The correspondent of The Times writes from Constantinople, Sept. 7, that the Russian Foreign Minister, Count Muraviev, is in direct communication with the Greek Government, and that the Greek Government is in the conclusion of peace between the two countries. Lord Salisbury has announced that Greece has abandoned her opposition to the demands of Germany regarding the control of Greek finance, and, therefore, there is a possibility that Lord Salisbury's latest proposals will lead to a settlement of the Greco-Turkish troubles.

London, Sept. 7.—The Standard publishes a despatch from Berlin saying that a new Russian syndicate, composed of 12 large petroleum firms, will, in its operations, be formed in 1898 and on a 15-year basis. The syndicate will control all petroleum operations and will be represented in the great markets. It will have tank boats and sewers in order to compete with American oil, and with the new Russian Foreign Field Wells, which have recently been opened up, and which are actively breasting the Balkan trade.

The syndicate will control all petroleum operations and will be represented in the great markets. It will have tank boats and sewers in order to compete with American oil, and with the new Russian Foreign Field Wells, which have recently been opened up, and which are actively breasting the Balkan trade.

London, Sept. 6.—The Standard publishes a despatch from Berlin saying that a new Russian syndicate, composed of 12 large petroleum firms, will, in its operations, be formed in 1898 and on a 15-year basis. The syndicate will control all petroleum operations and will be represented in the great markets. It will have tank boats and sewers in order to compete with American oil, and with the new Russian Foreign Field Wells, which have recently been opened up, and which are actively breasting the Balkan trade.
