

My Hair Ran Away

Don't have a falling out with your hair. It might leave you! Then what? That would mean thin, scraggly, uneven, rough hair. Keep your hair at home! Fasten it tightly to your scalp! You can easily do it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is something more than a simple hair dressing. It is a hair medicine, a hair tonic, a hair food.

The best kind of a testimonial—

The Eyre Bakery Burned

The bakery of Mr. M. H. Eyre was totally destroyed by fire this (Wednesday) morning.

About five o'clock, as is his custom, Mr. Eyre started a fire in his shop and returned to his house. A few minutes later the building was discovered to be on fire and an alarm was given, but nothing could be done to stay its progress. The flour store-house, only a few feet distant, was saved.

The fire engine was not taken out, and a report gained currency that the fire hall was locked, but this story was entirely without foundation. It was everybody's business to see that the engine was taken to the fire and every body failed to give attention to this important business. Fortunately, its services were not required.

Mr. Eyre's loss will be partly covered by insurance.

Prepare for the Show

Breeders of good stock in Eastern Ontario should be alive to the opportunity afforded them by the Eastern Show at Ottawa next January to show their animals for the large cash prizes.
Not only are the prizes well worth an effort to win, but the advertising a breeder gets is of even greater value.

The Show is an excellent place at which to sell stock. Last year a breeder of hogs sold forty animals as a direct result of the exhibit he made at this Show. Hogs must be bred and fed by the exhibitor, but cattle and sheep may be purchased any time before Oct. 20th.

LANSDOWNE

The Methodist church is undergoing repairs and meetings are being held in the town hall.

The Fair was a record breaker this year—fine exhibits, fine weather and a fine crowd. The lunch table presided over by the Ladies' Aid was well patronized, for which they are very thankful.

Mr. Charlie Steacy did a rushing business with his threshing outfit on this street. He is a hustler.

It is reported that Arthur Latimer, who lost his goods by fire here this summer, is going to Algonquin to start store keeping.

Owing to the heavy rain, the Rally Day service was postponed indefinitely.

Mrs. E. R. Bradley attended the S. S. convention at Lyn.

A large number of the male population attended the political meetings at evening. The party was given in honor of Mr. T. Whaley, a former

WORTH MILLIONS

But Could Not Buy Bread.
So Goes the Story

Like the Man at Klondike, Who Died of Starvation, With His Hut Full of Gold.

Many Die Yearly, With Means of Salvation at Hand, Who They but Able to Use Them.

Physicians the world over have known of and believed in the virtues of cod liver oil. They have, alas! also realized its drawbacks and the impossibility of administering it where it would do good. Doctors have seen hundreds of people die of consumption and other wasting diseases, whom they might have saved had they only been able to take enough cod liver oil to obtain from it a sufficient amount of the medicinal principles which it contained.

It is not necessary to go to doctors to know why cod liver oil has not been a popular remedy, or to realize how few people are able to take enough of it to do them any good. The many who have needed and attempted to take this nauseating remedy, if they are still in a position where they need cod liver oil, are the ones who should throw their hats in the air and shout their joy from the house-tops at the news which comes to us of Vinol.

These are the people who will never forget the name of this new remedy, nor will they ever cease to thank Messrs. J. P. Lamb & Son, our prominent druggists, who have become famous in the past few days, on account of their connection with the Boston firm who have introduced the same remedy.

How simple it all sounds, now that we know of it. Here Messrs. J. P.
Lamb & Son have right in their store, a preparation that looks like and tastes like delicious wine. It is a delicious wine, only there has been added to it this extract of cod's liver, this peculiar special extract of the curative principles the means of obtaining which is the only discovery about Vinol. We do not believe there is an invalid in this town suffering from throat, lung or bronchial troubles, or in fact any wasting disease, but has already interested himself in this preparation.

Messrs. J. P. Lamb & Son are kept busy explaining its merits and telling their many friends how it is now possible to take all that is necessary of cod liver oil, or Vinol, its concentrated active medicinal principles, to overcome disease. It has not been a difficult matter for them to explain, as they have done, the absolute uselessness of the grease itself and to demonstrate the great value of the medicinal properties of the liver of the cod.

There are many people right here in our town who know from but a few days' experience how much benefit they are deriving from this preparation, and who have already learned that the medicinal properties of Vinol act in a most wonderful manner in checking the symptoms of disease, while at the same time enabling the stomach to assimilate and digest from palatable, every-day food, the necessary nourishment to renew tissue depleted by disease.

Messrs. J. P. Lamb & Son are justly pleased at the success that will attend the connection they have made with the prominent Boston firm who are putting up this preparation, and justly deserves all the fame and profit that will attach themselves to their name, on account of their enterprise in introducing Vinol to our town.

You Needn't

You needn't keep on feeling distressed after eating, nor belching, nor experiencing nausea between meals.

In other words, you needn't keep on being dyspeptic, and you certainly shouldn't.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures dyspepsia—it strengthens and tones the stomach, perfects digestion, creates a normal appetite, and builds up the whole system.

"THE GRASS WIDOW."

"I fail to see," I said to she,
"Your weeds for he who died.
Your vestments for a widow Seem too glad some."
She blinked at me, then winked at me As coyly she replied,
"I'm not a weedy widow, But a grass one."

—Judge.

"Say, pa, hurry up! You'd think I was taking you to the dentist instead of to the candy store."—Browning's Magazine.

Private Ownership.

Before a great fire of logs in Helicon Hall, the seat of his utopian colony, Upton Sinclair one snowy night talked of the injustice of the private ownership of land:

"A tramp was one day strolling through a wood that belonged to the Duke of Norfolk. The duke happened to meet him and said:

"Do you know you're walking on my land?"

"Your land?" said the tramp. "Well, I've got no land of my own, so I'm obliged to walk on somebody's. Where, though, did you get this land?"

"I got it from my ancestors," said the duke.

"And where did they get it from?"
went on the tramp.

"From their ancestors," said the duke.

"And where did their ancestors get it from?"

"They fought for it."

"Come on, then," said the tramp sneeringly as he pulled off his coat, "and I'll fight you for it."

"But the duke, hastily retreating, declined to accept this fair offer."—Washington Star.

His Brilliant Idea.

"Why is it," she asked shortly after the wedding, "that you don't care to share any more? You were so fond of it before we were married."

"I wasn't fond of it, my dear. To tell you the truth, I made a martyr of myself for your sake. I knew you enjoyed it so that I felt as if I had to."

"Thought I enjoyed it? Heavens, I was a martyr too. I thought if I didn't go and be tortured I'd take some other girl, and—"

"Say, Fanny, I believe it would be a fine thing if every girl and boy could be locked up the minute they became engaged and kept behind bars till the day of their marriage."—Chicago Record-Herald.

When Man is Unassailable.

Fred—There are times when I care nothing for riches—when I could not so much as put forth a hand to receive millions.

Elkie—Indeed! That must be when you are tired of the world and its struggles and vanities—when your soul yearns for higher and nobler things.
Is it not?

"No; you are wrong."

"Then, when is it?"

"When I'm sleeping."—Tit-Bits.

Merely His Guess.

"Haven't you anything smaller?" asked the druggist when the customer handed him a $100 bill.

"Yes, but I don't believe you'd want it."

"Why not?"

"It's a piece of court plaster that I got in a barber shop and have been using all morning."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Extremists All.

Batchelder—Well, if I ever do take a wife I'll make it a point to pick out an economical woman. Whoman—Impossible, my dear boy! There's no such thing as an economical woman. A woman is either extravagant or stingy.
—Catholic Standard and Times.

A Fair Target.

Ascum—Did she actually ask old Boxley for his daughter's hand?

Wise—Yes, and he claims he compelled the old man to toe the mark.

Ascum—You don't say?

Wise—Yes, but she was the mark.
—Catholic Standard and Times.

Style.

"Don't you think that author has a remarkably original style?"

"Yes," answered Mr. Cumrox, "his style is wonderful. I can't understand a single sentence he writes without reading it at least twice."—Washington Star.

It Didn't Last.

Smith—Did I ever tell you about the morning I woke up and found myself famous?

Jones—No. What did you do then?

Smith—Oh, I went to bed the next night and slept it off.—Detroit Tribune.

Just Before the Crash.

"Hold on!" y'd led the fireman. "Stop here! Don't you see that red light ahead?"

"Never mind," replied the engineer.
"We're late. Let's take a chance."

Chicago Record-Herald.
