CANADIANS WON

Ithaca, May 28.—The Toronto lacrosse team defeated Cornell at Percy Field today, by a score of 11 to 2. The Canadians played a fast and brilliant game and their team work surprised that of Cornell.

WILL ACCOMPANY THE OTHER.
Glasgow, May 28.—After consultation with Mr. Fife, Sir Thomas Lipton has decided to send the Shamrock I to America with the challenger, in order that he may continue the cup races right up to the date of the cup races. This was a surprise, as an additional £24,000, but Sir Thomas Lipton is confident that the advantage to be gained justifies the expense. Captain Wiggins will command the Shamrock I with the same crew.

One business in which most of the inhabitants of the country are engaged, and which is never affected by the tariff or by hard times, is the business of getting ready for manhood and womanhood. All young people are "bound out" to this trade; though a few of them, it must be confessed, are shirkers and idlers and incompetents.

A Chinese newspaper contains the announcement that a certain dancing master will hold a religious service in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of his ancestor, who was the first of the family to take up dancing as a profession.

GRAND TRUNK'S BROCHURE

Company's Latest Publication Shows Art in Advertising.

Art in advertising is a feature that the Grand Trunk Railway Company does not lose sight of when issuing any of its advertising matter, and it can be safely said that the publications issued are second to none. The best of printing material that goes to make up a handsome tout-ensemble is used and every particular as regards the execution of the work is carefully looked after. This is practically demonstrated in the new publication, relative to the unrivalled service from the West to Portland, Me., in connection with the transatlantic service given by the Dominion line of steamships to Europe. The brochure is entitled, "Across the Atlantic via Portland, Me.," it is printed in five colors on enameled coated paper and gives an exhaustive and accurate description of the trip from Chicago and other Western points over the Grand Trunk to its eastern points over terminus at Portland.

The cover is a very fine piece of half-tone engraving depicting a scene in the harbor of Portland, reproduced from a view taken from the shore of South Portland and showing one of the Dominion line steamers leaving port. The large elevators belonging to the Grand Trunk show up prominently in the design, and with Mountjoy hill looming up on the left, a real little picture is presented. The text is printed in two colors and profusely illustrated with scenes along the route. The illustrations are printed in the halftone process, a unique style of printing introduced by the Grand Trunk, and which has been found most effective in enhancing the lights and shadows of the half-tones. An engraving in colors of the funnel marks and house flags of the principal transatlantic steamships is also shown.

SATISFIED WITH THE SOO.

Sault Ste. Marie, May 27.

Editor Planet:
In your issue of May 15th I noticed an article under the title of "all is not gold that glitters," and signed Wm. Derchan.

Now I don't know anything about Mr. Derchan or his circumstances, but I have lived in Chatham, in fact my home is not over thirty miles from there, and I also have lived in the Soo, and I know that if a man is endowed with an average amount of brains and ambition he can make a far better living in Sault Ste. Marie than he can in Chatham.

Of course there are people here who come here with the expectation of making a fortune in a summer, and consequently were disappointed, and now are kicking about it. Well, my advice to such people is if they are not getting as much money as they can get elsewhere, and if they can't get the mayor to run the town just to suit them, why, my dear friend, don't you get out of such a beastly hole and stop your chewing.

I have seen several letters in Chatham papers lately, written by former Chathamites who are here in the Soo, and they all have the same story, yet they stay right here. How do you account for it? When a man doesn't do fairly well in a town he generally moves somewhere else.

In regard to people walking the streets here because they could not get a room—well, rooms are not at all that scarce here, but when you spend your last nickel to get to a place there is generally some difficulty in securing a room anywhere except at the look-up.

Mr. Derchan's statement about the steel plant is correct, but he seems to have read Mr. Fleming's letter in the wrong way, or else it was a printer's mistake, as the information

THE WOMAN TEMPTED ME.

The Club Came to the Conclusion that There are Slogans—Codes of Ethics.

It was properly speaking, the afternoon set aside by the woman's club for the discussion of miscellanea. Before the members could be called to order, however, one of the number started an informal talk on a subject somewhat nearer home, and the matter of missions was allowed to go over to the next meeting.

The member waved aloft a newspaper and read an extract describing arrests made in a saloon which was violating the closing law by being open on Sunday. The men and women were all taken to the station house. In closing the account of the very ordinary occurrence the paper said:

"The proprietor was held for trial for violation of the liquor law. The Magistrate committed the women to jail for a month each. He discharged the thirty-five men."

"This," said the member with the newspaper, "is such a common happening that it is hardly worth mentioning, but it is very high as an item of news, because there is only very little space given to it. But it makes me blood boil to think of the injustice, the unchallenged injustice, of the law as it is interpreted. 'Court of justice,' indeed! 'I committed the women to jail for a month each. He discharged the thirty-five men!'"

It was a great sufferer for six years and doctored all the time with a number of different physicians, but did not receive any benefit. Mrs. George Soden, of 44 Bond Street, Saginaw (South), Mich. "One day as I was reading a paper I saw your advertisement, and although I had given up all hope of ever getting better, I would write to you. When I received your letter, telling me what to do, I commenced to take your 'Pleasant Pellets' and follow your advice. I have taken ten bottles in all, also five vials of the 'Pleasant Pellets.' Am now regular after having missed sleep for two years and suffered with pain in the head and back. I was so nervous, could not get or sleep. Now I thank you for my recovery."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness.

he gave in regard to the steel plant was simply an extract from a speech made by Mr. Clergue, the manager of the works here, and in it he said when completed the plant would have a capacity of 600 tons.

In conclusion, I will say that Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., is not very badly in need of people who are looking for a snap. But anyone who is not afraid of dirtying their hands can generally get a job here at fairly good wages.

Thanking you, dear sir, for space, I am,

A S. STE. MARIE CITIZEN.

POULTRY POINTERS.

Stimulink to which is added rye flour is good for fowls with bowel troubles.

Late making hens are of little value for laying during the fall and winter.

Sundew and sorghum seed may be fed without thrashing. Let the fowls pick them off.

Hens will rarely eat their eggs if they are given plenty of broken bone and oyster and clam shells.

Healthy, thrifty fowls are always early risers. They should be fed as soon as they fly down from the roost.

Besides the fact that a profit can be made in raising poultry and eggs for market, a still greater profit can be made by raising them for home use.

Poultry pays well in orchards. The shade is good for the fowls—they pick up numerous insects and fertilize the soil effectively. There is no surer remedy for the curculio. Give them free range in the orchard.

In making up the breeding yards it is better to have a small cockerel and large hen than a large cockerel and small hen unless some special object in the breeding is desired. The cockerels should be vigorous and active.

Roup usually comes from damp or drafty roosting places. The first symptoms show themselves in a swollen head, one side at a time, which, if not stopped, spreads to the other side, and a slimy discharge from the eyes appears.—St. Louis Republic.
