

1,000 Bushels HEAVY BLACK P. E. ISLAND OATS... 13c., 13c., 13c. for Eggs.

THE ACADIAN WOLFVILLE, N. S., JUNE 15, 1888

Local and Provincial.

Improvement.—The outside of the Lower Horton Methodist Church is receiving a new coat of paint.

Excursion to Parrboro, June 10th, summer Acadia. Sea posters.

New Locomotive.—The Windsor & Annapolis Railway Company are having a new locomotive built by the Portland, Maine, Manufacturing Company.

Caterpillar.—The apple tree caterpillars are unusually numerous this year, and some orchards in Lower Horton have been almost destroyed by them.

Why.—We wonder what that heap of stones was placed on the sidewalk near Mr. C. A. Patriquin's, on the street leading to Gasperau, for—if it was to stun him over dark nights or not?

Improvement.—Mr. C. H. Borden has just erected a new fence on the property adjoining his store, which is quite an improvement over the one which has recently done service there.

Excursion.—We understand that arrangements are being made to have a steamboat excursion to Parrboro on the Acadia on Tuesday next. A most enjoyable time will no doubt be had.

Strawberries.—Mr. T. W. Mills, of Lakeville, has planted on his farm over 12,000 strawberry plants, and expects this year to have a rattling crop from them. We wish he may.—Western Chronicle.

Professing.—We had a call a few days ago from Mr. J. B. Norton, the enterprising proprietor of the celebrated "Duck Blood Purifier". A fine new wagon and pair of fine horses indicate that Mr. Norton is meeting with deserved success.

Baptist.—On Sunday evening last the Baptist services were held as usual in College Hall when the sermon was preached by Wm. Cummings, Esq., of Truro. Mr. Cummings is not an ordained minister but seems to be a very earnest Christian worker.

College Honors.—Our reporter in hurriedly transcribing his notes just before we went to press last week accidentally omitted the name of Charles H. McIntire of the junior year, who received honors in classics. We trust Mr. McIntire will excuse the unintentional act of injustice to him.

Big clearance sale of Roompaper at Rockwell's; don't miss it.

Around.—The schr. The Star, which was partly loaded with potatoes here and finished at Port Williams, in attempting to get out of the river on Monday morning ran aground owing to the darkness. Several attempts have been made to get her off but without effect, and she will have to remain till the next high tide.

B. G. Bishop sells Greenhead lime a $1.50 per cart.

Camping.—The party who spent a few days camping up the Gasperau Lakes last summer are now making preparations for a more extensive expedition this year. They are now building a boat 18 feet long which will carry quite a large company with comfort. The party is expected to number about twelve this season and will no doubt have a very enjoyable time.

B. G. Bishop sells mixed paints at $1.40 per gallon, the best in the market and in all shades.

College Hall.—The Governors of Acadia College have decided to enlarge Assembly Hall so as to make accommodation for 500 more seats. The work is to be begun at once so as to have it completed before the Jubilee. The want of more room has been felt for years, and the extra seats will tend to make the closing exercises much more enjoyable in the future.

Fine Roompaper for only 3 cents per roll at Rockwell & Co's.

Temperance.—Ex-Governor St. John, the great prohibitionist, whose coming to the Province was mentioned in a former issue, has arrived and has begun his lecturing tour through the Province. He will not visit Wolfville, but has been engaged by the W. C. T. U. to deliver addresses in Hantsport on Wednesday 20th, and in Kentville on Friday 22d. We hope large numbers will hear him on both occasions.

Take Notice.—If your razor is dull, take it to J. M. Shaw's Barber Shop, and he will put it in first-class order for the small sum of 15c. 10

BEAT THESE PRICES ON UNIVERSAL SLIPPERS! Gents', 85 Cents. Ladies', 80 Cents. Misses', 70 Cents. Childs', 55 Cents. at BORDEN'S. Agency Kentville Steam Laundry.

Local and Provincial.

PERSONAL.—Mr. A. M. Hoate was in Wolfville over Sunday. He is looking exceedingly well. Life in the city agrees with him evidently.

Buy your Fishing Tackle at Prats's. 8

The "PETREL".—Mr. Manro has had his yacht out this week. With her new sails and newly painted she presents a very pretty appearance and sails splendidly.

A LEADING BUSINESS MAN DEAD.—James Harris, head of the firm of J. Harris & Co., iron-founders and car builders, of St. John, died on the 11th inst. He was a native of this Province and well known throughout the valley.

OFF FOR A VACATION.—Rev. R. D. Ross left on Tuesday for his usual summer vacation. He will attend the session of the General Assembly at Halifax after which he will spend a few weeks at his home in Pictou county. We wish the Rev. gentleman much enjoyment in his well-earned holiday. His pulpit will be supplied during his absence.

B. G. Bishop sells only first-class leads, such as Branden's Chemical Pure, and pure Oils.

F. G. A.—Dr. Henry Chipman, President of the Nova Scotia Fruit Grower's Association, recently received a letter from Mr. R. G. Haliburton, M. A., F. S. A., accompanied by a box of scions of an apple tree which was brought on camel-back from the Atlas Mountains, and planted in North Africa. The fruit is described as fragrant, very sound and smooth, color is red and yellow. Mr. Haliburton was first president of the F. G. A., and expressed himself as still deeply interested in the Association and the affairs of Nova Scotia in general.

D n't miss the excursion to Parrboro on Tuesday next. Select party. Number limited. See posters.

NEW MAGAZINE.—We have received from Mr. Horace Day a sample sheet of the Dominion Illustrated, a weekly magazine which promises to be of a very high order. The first page is occupied by a fine cartoon on the fisheries question, which Sir Charles Tupper and President Cleveland are represented as discussing, while the Republican majority in the guise of a hungry mastiff is pawing and gnawing over the treaty which lays on the floor. The illustrations are all good. There is a place in Canada for a good illustrated magazine and we wish the new venture success.

B. G. Bishop sells West's Standard Dressing for Buggy Tops. Best thing going.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—On Wednesday morning John Palmer, of Martock, (near Windsor) made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide by cutting his throat. Word was immediately conveyed to Windsor where medical aid was procured, but it is understood that there was no hope for the unfortunate man. Mr. Palmer was a gentleman respected by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. The man's rash act was caused by financial difficulties. His farm was to be sold by foreclosure and he had been informed that he would have to vacate immediately after the sale. This preyed on his mind to such an extent that he became temporarily deranged.

Married.—COLDWELL.—PORTER.—At the residence of the bride's father, on Tuesday, 12th inst., by Rev. Mr. Simpson, Mr. Bowman C. Coldwell and Miss Beattie Porter, daughter of Mr. John Porter, both of Avonport.

Died.—MORSE.—At Wolfville, June 10th, of diphtheria, Mabel, daughter of S. C. and Rachel Morse, aged 11 years.

ROBERTS.—At Wolfville, June 7th, Erna Evelyn, daughter of Mark D. and Ada B. Roberts, of South Framingham, Mass., and granddaughter of Enoch P. Coldwell of this place, aged 3 months and 15 days.

PAINE.—At Wolfville, 6th inst., Eliza, wife of Edward Paine, aged 65 years.

FORBETH.—At Greenwich, June 10th, of consumption, Lillian May, daughter of Harris and Eua M. Forbeth, aged 2 yrs and 2 months.

Your little girl is sleeping In quiet and dreamless rest, While you are easily weeping She slumbers with the blest. A bird of fairest promise, Blighted ere it could bloom, How lovely will thou flower be In the bright world to come. No sickness e'er can reach her, No pain nor any woe, For now such you now feel Your darling never'll know. I know how much you'll miss her, A shadow in your home, And e'er if you'll sigh for that dear voice Now silent in the tomb.

B. G. BISHOP ON BUYING.

To buy or not to buy: That is the question. Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer the stings and arrows of outrageous dealers, or take arms against this sea of troubles and by opposing get bargains. To buy: To make purchase, and by that purchase we end the heart-ache and the thousand natural shocks that flesh is heir to. 'Tis a consummation devoutly to be wished for. To buy: To purchase: Perchance to be gulled. Ay! there's the rub; For in that purchase I can give value in stock.

A Year's Experience.

After nearly a year's use of SIMSON'S LINIMENT, I have proved it to be what I supposed at first it was, an excellent Liniment to have about a Stable. I have used it in cases of Cuts, Galls, Bruises and Sprains on my horses, and in every case found it to give relief at once, cleansing the cuts and galls so that they healed rapidly, and reducing the soreness in cases of sprains and bruises in a short time. Nothing has presented itself to me that so effectively relieved both in my own family and in the families of my men, in cases for which it is intended to be used. R. F. WARDEN, Livery Stable, 31 King Square, St. John, N. B.
