

GREAT WATERWAYS RAILWAY AGAIN A TROUBLE MAKER

A New Townsite is Contemplated and Government Has Been Appealed to by Old Townsite Owners.

The famous Alberta and Great Waterways railway is before the public again and has brewed another pot of trouble for the government at Edmonton. The cabinet is now between the devil and deep sea in regard to it. A dispatch from Edmonton to The Standard says in regard to it: "The McArthur interests are making a new survey with the intention of shifting the terminals a few miles into districts which the company could acquire and retail as the official townsite was made almost two weeks ago by residents of the old town. A party was organized at once and the new survey was brought to Edmonton by owners of, and dealers in, Fort McMurray properties."

A meeting was held and it was hastily decided to lay the claims of the established town before the government. Accordingly, last Wednesday afternoon, a delegation nearly 50 strong and representing all the old McMurray interests met the executive council and placed the situation before them in the strongest possible manner.

The delegation was introduced by W. Puffer, H. E. Leppard, Jean Cote, and Robert Shaw, all members of the local house. Premier Stinson, Hon. Stewart, Hon. A. J. McLean and Hon. Wilfrid Garrieppe heard the claims. The property interests represented included those who got in on the original deal with Clarke of Kansas City and who bought up and partially marketed the potential townsite years before a foot of steel was laid. The McArthur interests after settling with Clarke, who alleged that he got a million dollars to step out of the A. and G. W. wreck, have been reluctant to pass up the possible revenue from the most important townsite in favor of private individuals. Hence the new survey. The government has promised the problem its most earnest thought.

HURTS LUMBER TRADE

The lumber industry of western Canada, stagnated just now because of the paralysis of the building trade, is about to suffer a serious reverse.

CONCERT EXCLUSIVELY FOR SOLDIERS

The Church of England Men's Society is staging a concert at Paset Hall on Wednesday, January 6, exclusively for soldiers, at which Col. Saunders, D.S.O., will take the chair. Invitations have been issued to officers, non-commissioned officers and it is expected that a large representation from Victoria park will be on hand.

ONTARIO CABINET CHANGES

The changes in the Ontario cabinet produced a surprise or two. It was known that Howard Ferguson, who ranked Esauquell, of Prescott, over the coals a year ago, was kept after a portfolio, but it was not considered that he was one of the heavyweights of the party and his appointment to the portfolio of lands, forests and mines was something of a sensation. His pal, Tom McGarry of Renfrew, is the new provincial treasurer, and he will be a capable official. He has been in public life for 15 years, nine of which he has spent in the legislature. He was defeated a couple of times before he made the grade in Renfrew, but once he got into the House he made himself invaluable to his constituents and he could not be beaten easily now. The other new minister is J. B. Lucas of Center Grey, who became attorney-general. He has been minister without portfolio since 1909. Hon. J. J. Foy retires from the attorney-generalship on account of ill health. There is a little uneasiness among the Conservatives because of the many cabinet changes and they are none too keen on holding a provincial election until they have to.

EDMONTON MAYOR CUTS OFF CIVIC DEPARTMENT HEAD

He states that he will do his share of the work and all that he can to further the interests of economy, so that it will not be necessary to have more than one commissioner besides himself to carry out the executive functions of the administration. Mayor McNamara promised economy, but started out by engaging four other commissioners and a deputy besides himself for the year.

Mayor McNamara said he would like to see the police department under an independent commission, say composed of three citizens, and perhaps when the 1915 council takes office he may bring this matter up for council's consideration.

THE COMING SESSION

A despatch from Ottawa says: The opening of the coming session of parliament will be devoid of the splendor and pomp of former openings. There will be no furs or feathers in the red chamber when the Duke of Connaught reads the speech from the throne. Kiki will be the predominant tint of the uniforms. War and preparations for war will be the main feature of the speech from the throne. The troops who escort his royal highness and his consort to the house will be men of war. In all probability, he will go to the front at an early date thereafter.

The drawing room and state hall, the two greatest annual events in Canadian society, have been called off. Only the state dinner will be held. Social events at government house, this season, are few and far between for every day brings news of bereavement to one or other side of the household. The New Year's levee will be held by the Duke at noon, January 1.

R. M. C. GRADUATE WOUNDED

London.—A list of wounded includes the name of Second Lieut. E. H. Del. Greenwood, Royal Engineers, formerly of the Royal Military college, Kingston, Ont.

RETIRED MAYOR PRESENTED WITH ADDRESS AND CHAIR

Mayor Sinnott has retired after having given the city two years of faithful service in the civic chair. At the closing meeting of the city council this week His Worship was presented with a complimentary address by the aldermen and was also presented with the oak chair in which he has presided over the deliberations of the city council during the past two years. The address was signed by all the aldermen and commissioners. Complimentary resolutions were also presented to the retiring aldermen and commissioner for the services rendered during the terms of office. Mayor Sinnott and others returned thanks and wish those present a happy New Year. In future all retiring mayors will be presented with the chair which they used during their terms of office.

GERMANS IN EAST AFRICA BEAT PORTUGUESE

Lisbon.—An official announcement by the Portuguese government of a fresh invasion of Angola, the Portuguese colony on the west coast of Africa, admits temporary success for the German troops. The report says: "The Germans have been compelled to retire to a strategic position in the interior. The Portuguese dragons, in a violent attack, dispersed the German cavalry, but the latter succeeded in surrounding the enemy's left flank." "The Portuguese loss was one officer killed, three wounded and four missing."

GIVING AWAY MONEY

Chicago.—Some of the richest men in Chicago, it has become known, are giving away their present incomes beyond what it costs them to live. The names of two of these men came to light Tuesday. They were James A. Patten and Julius Rosenwald.

"It isn't a thing to advertise," they said, "because we are bothered with hundreds and thousands of begging whenever the newspapers contain a hint we do not keep all we get. For myself, I've got all I need, all I want," said Patten. "When a man has got a comfortable home and enough to eat and clothes to wear, he does not need anything else more than the respect of his fellow men. I have the respect of my fellow men. I have the respect of my fellow men. I have the respect of my fellow men."

THE PROHIBITION QUESTION

Alberta is not the only section of this North American continent in which the prohibition question will be a vital issue within the next two years. Representative Hobson, of Spanish War fame, is a pronounced temperance advocate and he moved a resolution in Congress a few days ago calling for nationwide prohibition. The vote was 197 for and 178 against, but as two-thirds of the entire membership of the House is needed to amend the constitution of the republic, the amendment failed by 91 votes. It is significant, however, that the "drys" had a majority and Hobson has told the Democrats very plainly that they will have to support prohibition legislation in 1916 or something will crash into the party machine that will damage it very badly. This, it is assumed, means that he will lead a revolt if the party does not support the "drys."

Here in Alberta the question will be decided next year and it is considered probable that in Manitoba and Ontario, it will soon become the chief bone of contention between the old line political parties.

STARTING WORK ON BRIDGES

The possibility of starting work on the bridges early in the spring was formally discussed by Mayor Costello, Commissioner Grace and Commissioner Garden Wednesday. Mr. Graves stated it was a matter of financing. If the money could be obtained the work could be done.

WE APPRECIATE THIS

Under the caption "Our Neighbors on the North," the New York Sun, which is a frankly pro-Canadian journal, editorially expresses the following sentiments, which will certainly be appreciated on this side of the invisible line which constitutes the boundary between the United States and Canada:

"There could be nothing more graceful in expression or profounder in significance than the address made by the executive committee of the Canadian Peace Centenary Association yesterday, the one hundredth anniversary of the signing of the Treaty of Ghent."

"It is a century since British and American arms have been matched in national strife. In the midst of an earth-shaking war, in which Canada herself is engaged, it is a credit to the British imperial system, the Dominion points to the unguarded frontier, more than three thousand miles long, dividing her territory from that of this republic. It is a credit to the Dominion that the dealings of the great empire and the great republic afford a noble example to the rest of the world. They remain as an ideal in international relations."

"And the Dominion points to the century of peace, with its constant increment of friendliness and good understanding, and says, 'May many more follow it.'"

"May no century except of unbroken peace ever follow it! And the Sun begs leave to repeat, let us thank Heaven for our neighbors to the north of us!"

GROWING CALF WITH PEG LEG

Horton, Kan.—Sam Plotner owns a calf that has a wooden leg. The calf recently caught its left hind leg in the crotch of a tree and tore off the portion below the knee. Plotner rigged up a "stump" for the calf, fastening a piece of wood to the leg. The calf gets along nicely with its peg leg and is growing as rapidly as other calves. Sam hopes he won't grow any faster, as it is something of a "chore" to fashion Peggy's "stump."

$135 FOR PATRIOTIC FUND

The sum of $135.15, the balance left after paying the expenses in connection with the irrigation congress, held here last week, has been turned over to the South Alberta branch of the patriotic fund by the board of control; the principal contributors, the city and the C.P.R., having manifested their wishes that this be done.

LETTER FROM THE WRECK

Edmund Walker has received from the postal authorities a letter which he mailed to England on May 25. The letter went forward on the ill-fated steamer Empress of Ireland and was recovered by divers and returned to the writer this week.

AL AZHAR SHRINERS TRY TO SPELL

The nobles of Al Azhar temple held an enjoyable time, on Tuesday, evening when a big crowd of Shriners and their friends assembled.

The temple was fixed up to represent a down East school house of long ago. The teacher's desk was littered with slates and the paraphernalia of pedagogy. There was a big box stove with a red electric light burning therein, and a rope, running up to one of the ceiling ventilators, rang the bell.

Noble Dr. Essey was the teacher and Noble W. F. Leat officiated as the inspector. The school was rather a lively handful, and the proceedings never lacked excitement, what with marbles, log rolling and other sports. Of course, the big event of the session was the spelling bee. Noble "Bob" Pearson captained one side and Noble "P. A. Walker" the other. Noble "Pearson" was the captain of the side after a battle royal. Those who sided until the two teams were formed, and then "spelled down" until a decisive result was reached.

PROMINENT RANCHER DEAD

Cowley, Alta.—J. C. Dewrey, of the Glenn ranch, Cowley, died Monday evening at 3:30 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Dewrey had suffered from complications contracted by taking cold. His brother, A. J. Dewrey of Vancouver, and his sister, Mary, were at his bedside when he peacefully passed away. His mother, though at the Glenn ranch, has been unable to leave her bed for over a year.

The deceased was one of the best known Percheron horsemen in western Canada, being a member of the Board of the Western Percheron Association of Canada, and also a member of the Board of the Alberta Agriculture College of Education.

Mr. Dewrey was at one time an employee of the Toronto Globe, and was also a mining engineer. He was sixty years of age.

FEAR BRITISH AVIATORS

Amsterdam.—Three large wood stores in Goch, a German industrial town of about 7,000 population in the Rhine province of Prussia, but a few minutes from the borders of Holland, have been placed under constant military surveillance in fear of a British aeroplane attack according to a despatch to The Telegraph.

It is reported that two aviators have recently been seen over the town although whether they were defenders watching for British machines or were scouting British aviators is not known.

HAS SIX FINGERS

Matamoras, Pa.—Chester Shepley, aged 4 years, son of John Shepley of this place, is hearty and well developed but he bears the unusual distinction of having six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. All of these members are fully formed and perfect in shape. He does not have two thumbs on each hand, but has five fingers and one thumb.

CAPE BRETON CANDIDATES

ANOTHER GREAT TREAT For Western Standard Readers

Beginning in next week's issue another Serial Story entitled "The Valiants of Virginia," by Hallie Erminie Rives. Few authors of today write so entertainingly or keep one's attention so thoroughly wrapped up in a story as Hallie Erminie Rives. She has few equals and no superiors, as a writer of modern fiction. This story is one of her best and during these long winter nights you will appreciate it. Order The Western Standard right away if you are not already a subscriber, so that you can start with the first chapter.

WANTS INVESTIGATION

R. Marshall, who started the investigation into municipal paving, which is still hanging fire, says that he was preparing to petition the council of 1915 to go ahead with the investigation and conclude it as speedily as possible. Engineer C. W. Craig has so far recovered from his injuries that he is able to come to the office, and as the delay was due to his hurts, there is no reason why the investigation cannot be resumed at once.

"Although Alderman Hunt is no longer a member of the council," said Mr. Marshall, "I hope the new council will find some way to retain him as chairman of the committee, or, at least, in an advisory capacity. As Dr. Costello, another member of the committee, is now mayor, it will be asking too much, perhaps, to require him to continue to serve on the committee until the investigation is complete, but I hope if any rearrangements are made, the new council will make them at once and conclude the work. We can now, at least, go forward calmly without any political heat, as the election is over, and sit out all the facts."

HEREFORD CALF PART RABBIT

Bedford, Ont.—Charles M. Wilson, a prominent farmer west of this city, near the Green county line, has the most remarkable freak animal ever seen in the State. The animal is a three-week-old Hereford calf that is perfectly healthy in every way, but cannot walk like other calves. Instead, it runs and jumps like a rabbit. It has no tail, but where the tail should be there is a bunch of hair exactly like that which serves for a rabbit's tail. The freak has caused much interest in this section and hundreds of people have flocked to the Wilson farm to see it.

BRITON MUST DIE

Copenhagen.—A private message from Berlin says that the German supreme war tribunal has sentenced a British prisoner, named Lonsdale to death for assaulting a German officer at the Dohertitz concentration camp. Lonsdale in the first instance was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment, but the military authorities appeal for a sentence of capital punishment, has been successful.

It is asserted that Lonsdale did not hurt the officer, and that a prison guard beat him up.

ATTRACTIVE CALENDARS

J. A. Irvine & Co., Bice, Whaley company, the Alberta Carriage and Miller & Richards have The Standard's thanks for handsome and useful calendars. Messrs. Irvine & Co., who represent the Nova Scotia Fire Insurance Co., and several leading insurance and building concerns had their calendar printed at The Western Standard's Job office and it is very attractive.

GOING TO WAR

Sydney C. Clayton, formerly of The Standard business staff, is in the city arranging to enlist in the 15th Light Horse. It is understood that Mr. Clayton, who has been in active service, and has served in different parts of the Empire, will receive a commission, and there will probably be no man in the contingent who will be better qualified.

CARRICK VOLUNTEERS

Port Arthur.—Sir Robert Borden announced Wednesday here that Mr. J. Carrick, M.P., honorary colonel of the 96th regiment, had volunteered to serve at the front and that it was the hope of the militia department to avail itself of his services in a manner best calculated to take advantage of his abilities.

January 2, 1915

VICTORIA CAMP

Considering that there are 1,100 men in camp just now at Victoria park the health of the soldiers is in a satisfactory state, there being but seven men in hospital at the present time. As the climate is nearly all due to tonsillitis, there is only one serious case and that is of a man who is suffering from pneumonia, but he is now, also, on the mend.

CRITICIZES WILSON

Ottawa.—The Ottawa Evening Journal commenting on the note from Washington to Great Britain, says: "Countless thousands will today render silent judgment that President Wilson, in his note to the British foreign secretary has made the greatest blunder of singularly successful career."

"As a nation the course of the United States has been splendidly selfish up to this point."

"Now, under pressure from United States traders, as The London Globe puts it, official contentions is made that Britain, in the maintenance of a critical military and naval position, must not interfere with a contraband commerce that would enable the enemy to live."

"If there is copper for the Krupp in the bowels of an American cotton cargo, it is up to Britain to remove that contraband. Public opinion across the line generally arrives at a just conclusion. Let our friends across the line take a couple of days to think it over."

POLICEMAN SHOT BY HORSE

Owatonna, Minn.—"Shot by a horse." Sounds incredible, but it is true. Traffic Policeman John MacDonald was standing at his regular post on a prominent street corner of Owatonna when a loud report was heard and MacDonald felt the sharp sting of a bullet in his leg. And the criminal was "Old Dobbin," a faithful old delivery horse.

Some one carelessly set a loaded rifle of the old-fashioned type against a curb while the owner ran into a store. Dobbin backed up a moment later and struck his heels against the firearm, which fell to the pavement and discharged a bullet into the policeman's leg.

MacDonald will recover without serious after effects, but he now regards horses as sworn enemies of a "traffic cop."

TO VOTE PENSIONS

Ottawa.—To provide pensions for widows and dependents of soldiers who lose their lives or are disabled at the front, it is estimated that $10,000,000 will be required every year for each 50,000 men in the field. The initial appropriations will be made at the coming session of parliament. The rate will be a considerable increase over that which has hitherto prevailed. Expenditures for clothing, equipment, etc., of the expeditionary forces, so far, have aggregated about $20,000,000, and have involved more than 5,000 separate contracts.

CANADIANS AWAIT SUMMONS

Montreal.—A London despatch to The Star says the Canadians at Salisbury are anxiously awaiting news from the Princess Patricia's from the front, and eagerly expecting the call for the next to go. It is expected that the honor will fall to the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, the Royal Canadian Dragoons and the Strathcona Horse.
