Chalmers' Presbyterian Church Cele brates its Anniversary.

Chalmers' Church on the mountain was crowded last evening by members and others to do honor to the second annicrowded iast evening by meaners and others to do honor to the second anni-versary of the congregation. Rev. Mr. Sarkissian occupied the chair, and Rev. Mr. McLachlan, of St. James Presbyter-ian Church, made a brief and rather amusing speech. Those who took part in the entertainment were Miss Lillie MeVittie, Miss Divine, Miss C. Guyatt, Miss Young, Miss Leubke, Mr. Robert Symmers and Mr. Roy Fenwick. The programme was a good one and the audience seemed to enjoy it. Coffee and cake were served at the close by the ladies of the church, and altogether. a pleasant time was had by those in at-tendance. During the evening Mr. Sar-kissian referred to his prospective de-parture from the church, and hoped it would not be long before they had a pas-tor of their own, one who cculd davote this whole time to the work. The collec-tion at the Sunday anniversary services amounted to $41.50.

their regret at the departure of Mr. Gil-bert Gomm, who has severed his connec-tion with the company for the commend-able purpose of taking up the ministry. It was the desire of the employees to show in tangible form the high esteem in which he was held for his many good qualities, gentle bearing and Lindly dis-position. A handsome library chair was presented to Mr. Gomm, and many kind wishes expressed by Mr. Barnard, who was the spokesman for the occasion. The recipient was taken completely by sur-prise, but replied in a feeling manner, regretting that he was parting with so Polé cerretting that he was porting with s amongst whom such ples sant relations had always existed, but feeling the call of duty, he had bowed to the Divine Will.
