the Legislative Council. With onor two exceptions, the result is duentirely to the apathy of our Libera'servative friends. So little inportance is attached to the existence the Council, that a large number of electors, instead of going to the polls, remained home, and thus abled the Grits, who mustered all their strength, to secure a majority.

Contrary, however, to Grit expectations, Beltast has been redeemed by a handsome vote. Mr. Alexander

Martin, who was defeated in June last, owing to disgraceful Grit slarders, has been elected by a larg majority to represent the property holders of that large and flourishing District. We congratulate the people of Belfast upon their spirited reply tthe Grit organ's charges of job ery and corruption.
