

THE DUFFERIN'S VISIT.

Now a Brantford Reporter Viewed the... The war correspondent of the Brantford... Goderich was reached about noon, and an immense crowd of citizens in holiday attire were at the depot to bid the visitors welcome.

The march extended to the drill shed and everywhere along the line of march were to be seen evidences of the welcome Goderich extended. Flags were flying, and a large banner was suspended, hundreds of pretty girls thronged the streets or sat at open windows or doors, business men and other residents offered the freedom of their homes, and it seemed that Goderich citizens vied with each other in their attentions.

At eight o'clock Lieut. Kidney of "D" Co. who had a duty to attend to patrolling the streets with his platoon and found Dufferin everywhere. These were all sent in to headquarters, the parade formed, and the Rifles marked again to the depot the band playing Auld Lang Syne, and the Goderich people on the sidewalks singing it as they walked along at the side of the effect at a distance was really very fine.

WHAT THEY WERE SAYING. Bow-wow-wow!—The dog of the Regiment. I'm on deck as usual.—Secretary-General McLean.

That was a lucky night I struck Brantford.—R. S. Williams. I led off, did you see me?—Sergt. Masick.

Those men should have sauntered on their boots to entice their trousers down.—The Goderich girls. Mayor Scarle you're getting a big boy now.—Mayor Horton.

Hush for the rifle-green—my old color.—Major Cooke. And now I die happy.—Capt. Jordan. Brantford money is no good here.—Will Horton.

We want you to come again.—Graham Cameron. I kept my promise and turned out.—Capt. Miller.

And your graceful act will not be forgotten.—Lt. Col. Jones. My parade state shows over 300 on parade.—Adjutant McMichael.

My boys have formed a kazoo band.—Capt. Rothwell. My flag floated over the visitors.—Postmaster Dickson.

We'll never forget Major Cooke.—The Ambulance Corps. One whole day of unparalleled amusement.—The Secretary-General.

The following postal card lay upon the war correspondent's table when he returned home:—Goderich, Ont., 21st July, 1884. Editor Expressor:

When you leave the city bring all you have to spare. But I would be vain. Toasting the rain. To moisten our pure air.

The Goderich trip is over, and it was probably one of the most pleasant excursions that has run from Brantford in years. Plenty of cars prevented crowding, and the excursionists were in good humor, and ready to return kindnesses when arriving at Goderich.

The Lord's Army still continues to attract a large number to their services, they may not do as much good as at first, but they still hold the fort. A good deal of discussion on the merits of the Scott Act is taking place just now. If both sides poll a full vote it will be pretty even.

The Methodist ministers of Duncannon circuit are unfortunate. Mention is made of a week since, of the illness of Mr. Turner, and we learn that his long illness, Mr. Legler, is also on the list, and unable to take any work whatever.

Goderich.

Ginger Meyer, who has resided in Brantford for some time, is home on the sick list. Edward McCabe, while sharpening reaper knives one day last week, cut a cash in one of his hands. Mr. J. Conolly bound for N. Bear 9 acres of wheat, in eight hours on Tuesday last, the wheat being an average crop.

Fred Kuchnickie has taken the job of binding D. Bear's grain, at half a dollar per acre. One day last week one of Mr. Harbottle's men attempted to cross a warped six inch stringer. When he reached about the centre, it turned, and threw him to the ground, a distance of about 15 feet. Where he fell there was a large pile of stone and he was very severely bruised, but had no bones fractured.

THE BOUNDARY AWARD.

A Grand Triumph for the People of Ontario.

The disputed territory is Ontario's! Every stick of timber, every stone, every nugget of gold, every acre of land beyond Ontario, beyond the power of that arch-destroyer of provincial rights, Sir John Macdonald, to deprive her of. The decision is the boundary case has not been formally given by the Judicial Committee of the Imperial Privy Council, but their lordships have intimated their intention to report to the Queen-in-Council a boundary line practically the same as that favored by the three arbitrators. It will start at the northwest angle of the Lake of the Woods, and will include the territory which Sir John Macdonald handed over to Manitoba.

Ontario has reason to rejoice, and to express confidence in the gentlemen who so ably presented her case to the Judicial Committee; whose ability, observation and experience happened to be at her service in other administrative capacities, at a moment when the case came up for consideration. With Mr. Meredith in power, Ontario's case would have been abandoned! The Dominion would have walked over the course, and Ontario humbled before the Dominion Premier's centralizing aspirations! The Mail sets the seal this morning in the most appropriate manner. It professes to rejoice at Ontario's triumph; but after its unpatriotic efforts to deprive the province of one-half her territory and its subjugation to all Sir John Macdonald's attacks upon provincial rights, the public will know how much reliance to place upon the genuineness of the satisfaction.—(Ottawa Free Press.)

CONTEMPORARY OPINION.

The Sayings of the Brethren—Wise and Otherwise—Placed on Record.

Toronto Telegram: We understand that Mr. Morat has distinctly stipulated that no monetary testimonial shall be presented to him, and that this is the reason that the Reform party is not to be called upon to make up to him in a substantial way what he has lost by practically abandoning his profession to fight their battles for them in the field of politics. Mr. Morat has said that he will accept no financial testimonial while he is in public life. This is creditable to him as a public man, but it is surely too much to expect that he will continue to serve the party for the few thousands a year he receives as Premier of Ontario.

Waterloo Chronicle:—The official reason given for dissolving Parliament in 1882, a year before its time had expired was that millions of foreign capital were awaiting the verdict of the people on the N. P. proposed if that verdict were favorable, to be invested in manufactures on Canadian soil. Two years have passed since that election. Would it be proper to ask, Where are those millions now? We observe in passing, that the Barnum Iron and Wire Works Co., of Detroit, which opened branch establishments in Windsor and Toronto has removed both from Canada.

The boundary of Ontario is to be fixed by the Privy Council as the arbitrators fixed it. It runs from Glenary to the Lake of the Woods, and from Hudson Bay to Pelee Islands. It includes the territory that has been in dispute and for the possession of which Manitoba was prepared to do battle with its artillery and big guns. The Liberals, by the decision, are declared to have been right in their contentions all along, the Tories to have been altogether wrong.

Things You Are Not to Do.

Don't conduct correspondence on postal cards. A brief business message on a postal card is no part of the way, but a private communication on an open card is almost insulting to your correspondent. Don't write notes on inferior paper. Tasteful stationery means note paper and envelopes of choice quality, but entirely plain. When you enclose a letter to a correspondent to be forwarded, don't omit to place a stamp on the letter. Don't fail to acknowledge by note all invitations, whether accepted or not. Never leave a letter unanswered.

In writing to a young lady, don't address her as 'Dear Miss.' Either follow the 'Mias' with the surname, or write 'Dear Madam.'

Don't interject sir or madam freely into your conversation. Don't say secretary for secretary, salary for salary, history for history, ketch for ketch, hen for hen, etc. for cat or ate, or gents for gentlemen. Don't say posted for well informed, nor balance for remainder. Don't say ain't for isn't 'tain't for it is not.

In referring to a person, don't say he or she or him, but always mention the name. There are men who continually refer to their wives as she, and the wives who have commonly no other name than he for their husbands.

Excursion to Toronto.—The G.T.R. will run a holiday excursion to Toronto, on Tuesday, Aug. 5th. Fare from Goderich or Clinton $1.50, and tickets are good for two days. Train leaves Goderich at 6 a.m. The only excursion this season at such a low rate.

COUNTY CURRENCY.

Items from All Parts of Huron got on the News Exchange.

The Clinton New Era says:—"The army continues to draw 'crowded houses,' and there is, apparently no decrease that interest of their meetings. They intend holding a tea meeting in the town hall, to be addressed by several of the leading officers of the army, after which all night services will be held in the temperance hall. There is some talk of the Army buying the present Presbyterian church, as soon as it is vacated, in which to hold their services, and negotiations are in progress now. If they do not succeed in this, it is said they will at once proceed to erect a barracks."

To be Hanged.—Many of our readers will remember the shooting of a young man named James Cook, son of Andrew Cook, formerly of Goderich township, which occurred at Lincoln, Nebraska, about two years ago. The murderer carried his case from one court to another, and every means was used to defeat the ends of justice, but without avail, as he was finally found guilty of murder in the first degree, and will suffer the penalty of the law in Lincoln, the place where the murder was committed, next month.

Misfortunes Never Come Singly.—The truth of this saying was forcibly illustrated the other day. Jas. Stevens, of the base line, has been laid up for several days with sciatica in his legs, and was, therefore, unable to move around with his usual alacrity, and perform his accustomed work. One of the boys, taking out the mower, allowed the horse to throw him away, and before they were stopped, the mower was broken to pieces, although Mr. Stevens saw the whole affair, but could render no assistance. During the afternoon of the same day, the team were attached to a wagon, and hay-rack, when they ran away again, causing further damage.—(New Era.)

A true bill has been found against the dynamiter Daly. The Pall Mall Gazette demands the total abolition of the House of Lords. A box four inches square and four and one-eighth inches deep contains one quart.

An outbreak of typhus fever has occurred in the Vooges, France. Of forty persons attacked ten died. The Paris Figaro says Hartmann, the nihilist, has committed suicide. It is reported he was starving. Lord Randolph Churchill denies that he intends to visit the United States during the coming autumn.

In consequence of inquiry into the conspiracy at Warsaw, it has been arranged that the Czar will arrive at the fortress of Soltau, outside of Warsaw.

EPPE'S COCA—GRAPEFUL AND COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the nature of the laws which govern the operations of the human system, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected botanicals, Dr. Eppe has provided breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured tonic which may save us many heavy doctor's bills, and by a judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be restored to its normal condition, and resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds ready to testify wherever there is a well-to-do family, and a properly nourished frame.—Dr. Eppe's Cocoa, Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in Packets, labelled—EPPE'S COCA, by Grocers, labelled—EPPE'S COCA, Homoeopathic Chemists, London Eng.
