Thirty-Seven Killed, Over Sixty Injured.

MANCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 25.— Speeding eastward behind time, the Lehigh Valley passenger train No. 4 ran into a spread rail, on a trestle near here to-day, and two day coaches from the mid-section of the train plunged downward forty feet striking the east embankment like a pair of projectiles.

In the awful plunge and crash at least 37 persons are to-night believed to have been killed, and more than sixty injured. The injuries of several are so serious that it is feared they will die.

The wreck was the worst in the history of the Lehigh Valley line in this State, and one of the most disastrous ever recorded on the system.
Crowded with passengers many of whom were war veterans and excursionists from the G. A. R. encampment at Rochester, Train No. 4 made up of 14 cars, drawn by two big Mogul engines was 40 minutes late when it reached Rochester Junction and from there sped eastward to make up time before reaching Geneva.

PLUNGED DOWNWARD.

The engines and two day coaches had just passed the centre of a 400 foot trestle over Canadiana outlet 150 yards east of the station at Manchester, at 12.25 o'clock when the pullman car Austin, the third of a long train left the rails. It dragged the dining car with it, and two day coaches, and two pullmans in this order followed. All bumped over the trestle a short distance when the coupling between day coach No. 237 and the rear end of the diner broke.

The forward end of the train dragged the derailed pullman Austin, and the diner over safely, after which both plunged down the south embankment and rolled over. The free end of the ill-fated Lehigh Valley day coach, where most of the slaughter occurred was shoved out of the gulf, and followed by a Grand Trunk day coach, stripped the rear guard off the south side of the trestle, and plunged to the shallow river bed, more than forty feet below.

Both cars were filled with humanity as the plunge was made, and in a few moments the cars lay, a mass of crumpled wood, metal and glass under which a hundred men, women and children, many of whom were killed instantly, were buried.

A TERRIBLE SCENE.

The most destruction occurred in day coach No. 237, and a dozen persons were later taken dead from the second day coach, which had followed the first over the trestle, snapped its rear coupling, and thus saved the rest of the train from being dragged over.

This second day coach struck on the bottom and stood up, the rear end projecting a few feet above the top of the trestle. All of the passengers in this car were piled in tangled mass of broken seats at the end of the car. Indescribable pandemonium followed.

RUSHED TO RESCUE.

The Pullman car Emelyn which remained on the bridge with one end projecting over the gulch, and several cars behind it, derailed and in immediate danger of going over on the mass of wreckage below, were soon emptied of all their passengers and these aided by gangs of railroad employees from the big freight yards at Manchester rushed to their aid.

As the groans of the injured and dying were heard below all possible speed was made, but it was several minutes before anybody reached the cars at the bottom to effect rescues.

REMOVING THE DEAD.

The cars did not catch fire. Axes were secured and body and after body was removed and carried by the rescuers knee deep in the river bed to the bank of the west side of the trestle.

There the dead and injured were laid out on the damp ground, while planks and timber taken from buildings in course of construction were requisitioned and a field hospital was established. It was more than an hour before many of the injured could be removed, and special trains from both Geneva and Rochester brought physicians, nurses and medical supplies.

HUNDREDS RECEIVED AID.

Hundreds waited treatment and the railroad station at Manchester, a cider mill and an ice house were used to give temporary shelter and treatment to the refugees.

The dead removed from the wreck and brought to the morgue of J. M.
Stoddard, at Shortsville, near here, at nine o'clock numbered 26. Two other persons died in Rochester from their injuries. Several other persons with probably mortal injuries are lying in the hospitals at Rochester, Geneva and Clifton Springs. The number seriously injured is estimated at sixty.

They Met and Are Satisfied.

They met to-night, the one who closed his eyes Unto the pain forever and the woe, And one who found the mansions in the skies
In all their splendor long, long years ago.

What will they say when first their eyes shall meet?
Or will a silence take the place of words.

As only saints can know how strangely sweet
A rapture such as only heaven affords?

Will she who went before ask first for those Left far behind, those whom she loves so well?

Or will the other, new to heaven's repose, Question of all its meaning—who can tell?

And will they wander where the flowers are deep Beneath their feet there in the pastures green.
Where fadeless blossoms o'er the hillsides creep,
And where no piercing thorns are ever seen?

One went so long ago, and one tonight
Took the long journey far across the tide;
This only do I know; they meet tonight.

And meeting, both, I know, are satisfied.

For Tungsten Lamp.

Important Discovery May Revolutionize Lighting.

London, Aug. 24.—A discovery which it is said may revolutionize electric lighting was made public this week.

It was announced by H. R. Sporberg of the British Thomson-Houston company, that after three years' research they had succeeded in producing tungsten in such a form that it could be drawn into a continuous wire one thousandth of an inch in thickness and used in any length or sent into any shape. At the same time its tensile strength had been increased.

Hitherto tungsten has been producible only in short lengths. The newest discovery makes it possible to use a continuous wire in a lamp, so that the risk of breakage is reduced to a minimum and the life of the lamp is considerably extended.

Girl Drugged

And Placed Aboard Street Car at Montreal.

Montreal, Aug. 24.—Half a dozen police and detectives are using every effort to discover the persons who drugged and placed on board a street car at Dominion Park last night a strikingly beautiful girl of unknown identity, who was found in a heap beneath a car seat when the car was taken into the St. Henri barns early this morning. At the Western hospital all the efforts of physicians to bring the girl back to consciousness have been in vain and there are grave fears for her recovery.

Tastefully clad in modish garments the girl was found by the car conductor, and as far as he could remember the girl got on with a crowd at Dominion Park on the last trip, but whether or not any person was with her he could not say. A big crowd got on at the Park and the girl may have been lifted on the car in the same condition in which she was found in St. Henri.

New York, Aug. 24.—Ten men set upon John Pinto and Thomas Keno, two Italian workmen, as they were hurry home along a downtown street early this morning. When Pinto and Keno declined to give up their money to their assailants, one of the gang standing beside Pinto pulled the trigger of his revolver.
The bullet went through Pinto's body an inch beneath his heart, and buried itself in Keno's body. Both men will die. Their assailants escaped.

We Point the Way!

THERE are many points in connection with advertising that must of necessity—if success is desired—be studied carefully by the merchant who desires to reach new customers and to please those he has already gained.

The goods he wishes to advertise must be of the right kind --- THE KIND THE PEOPLE WANT --- and the price must be of the honest kind—good value for good money. Every merchant of course, knows this; but every merchant doesn't think of it when making copy for his advertising space. Here are

Four Cardinal Points

FOR THE MERCHANT TO CONSIDER : 1. The Right Goods ;
2. The Right Medium ; 3. The Right Copy ; 4. The Right Time.
With this combination any merchant or manufacturer may enter the field of publicity with confidence.

Many merchants who have goods to sell are fearful of investing a dollar in making known to the public the lines of goods they are dealing in, with the result that much of the goods remain on their shelves for an indefinite period to the deterioration of the materials and consequent loss to the owner. This state of things in a merchant's store ought never to be heard of; but the fact remains—and facts are very stubborn things.
There is a way out, however, and we point the way.

Take a space in the EVENING TELEGRAM.

No trouble will be experienced in unloading the goods from off your shelves that otherwise must remain there for an indefinite period.
