IN THE YEAR 1932

How much will you have accumulated at your present rate of saving? Most men will have little or nothing saved if conditions are at all similar to those of to-day.

Every prominent young man appreciates the wisdom of accumulating for his own benefit at least, and looks forward to an old age of comfort and enjoyment relieved from want and worry. And every thoughtful man endowed with manhood feels that a duty rests upon him to make some provision for others dependent upon him.

The safest, simplest and most profitable way to accomplish all this, and to be sure of a snug competency by the year 1932, is by investing in a Canada Life Endowment Policy for $5,000 or $10,000, according to your means and requirements. The policy can be bought on easy instalments and facilities are provided to assist in carrying and enjoying the insurance.

Send in your name and age and let us submit to you a good proposition.

Peace Imminent.

Awful Ravages of Cholera.

Special Evening Telegram.

LONDON, To-day.

The Controversy permitting of no news to come from the front the situation is more perplexing than ever. Various reports have drifted in, however, among them that Adrianople had fallen; that Bulgarians captured Hademkoi, headquarters of Turkish commander-in-chief; that Mazim Pasha, Turkish General had capitulated; and that Bulgarians either by sea or by land have reached the vicinity of Kilios on the Black Sea coast. A short distance from Constantinople. These reports are still without confirmation. Vague dispatches published from Sofia, state that six fortifications along the Tchalajia line have been captured after what has been described as heavy sacrifices on the part of the Bulgarians. All reports previously published through Vienna Reichpost or from other sources go to show the Bulgarians are having no easy task. Nothing is known as to whether or not the Turkish Government has received any news from the seat of war for some days. What perhaps is of greater importance than the progress of hostilities in South Eastern Europe is the revelation of the tremendous ravages Cholera is making, not only among the destitute refugees who daily are arriving in thousands at Constantinople but among the Turkish troops on the Tchalajia lines. It is supposed this danger might suffice to give Bulgarian commanders pause and induce the Bulgarian Government to arrange an armistice and negotiate peace, since as the practical objects for which the war was undertaken have already been secured, it is therefore useless to run the risk of Cholera in the Bulgarian army for the sake of a formal entry into Constantinople, to avoid which, it is believed Turkey is ready to agree to almost any terms. A significant article appears in the Bulgarian Government organ, Mir, which declares peace imminent and holds out the olive branch to Turkey to enter into a good understanding with the Balkan League.

That Collision In Sydney Harbour.

Confusion on Board Tug Supposed to Cause Drowning Tragedy.

The Black Diamond liner City of Sydney, Capt. Fraser, reached port at 5.30 yesterday evening from Montreal via intermediate ports, bringing particulars of the collision between that steamer and the tug Douglas H. Thomas, in Sydney Harbour, dispatches concerning this having already been published. The accident resulted in a drowning tragedy, comprising the loss of five lives, as well as the beaching of the tug at Westmont.

The City of Sydney left Montreal nine days ago. She met with stormy weather in the St. Lawrence Gulf, encountering the same gale that the big liner Royal George met with mishap. She reached Charlottetown on Sunday last and left the following day for Sydney, where she arrived on Tuesday, the 12th inst.

How the Collision Occurred.

The steamer, having finished unloading and taking in freight, was off from Ingram's pier at ten o'clock on Wednesday night. As the harbour was blocked with schooners, fearing mishap, Captain Fraser decided to get the Douglas H. Thomas, a tug, to bring the ship around. When this work was performed the tug, it is alleged, hauled across the bow of the City of Sydney, and was going at half speed. In consequence she was struck by the Black Diamond liner about amidships. The impact was no great, however, as the City of Sydney's engines were reversed and her anchors dropped. The master of the tug believing his vessel had been badly injured and fearing the worst, continued towards the shore under full speed and beached his vessel at Westmont. The Douglas H. Thomas had thirty-eight labourers on board. They had been working on the Black Diamond steamer and were on their way to North Sydney to their homes. At the moment of the collision, we are informed by the officers of the City of Sydney, a regular pantomime occurred on board the tug. Her lights were on as a result of the shock. Roaring and shrieking could be heard, while men jumped overboard, thinking their crippled craft would sink. The men were knocked overboard and drowned as this is how the five Newfoundlanders, it is believed, met their fate. Four of the men rescued themselves by clinging fast to the anchor chain of the Black Diamond ship until hoisted on board. Boats were then quickly lowered from the steamer and after searching for lives that may be in the immediate neighbourhood of the collision, proceeded to Westmont where the Douglas H. Thomas was beached. Following the collision Mr. McIsaac, Traffic Manager of Sydney boarded the steamer, accompanied by a lawyer and took statements from the Captain and officers to be used at the enquiry into the accident.

Questioned as to the five Newfoundlanders that are missing and believed to be drowned, the City of Sydney's officers could not supply the Telegram with any definite information. Their names are—Fred. Sams, J. Sams, C. Pine, C. Evans and John Grover. The crew of the Black Diamond ship, which reached Westmont on Thursday until 3 a.m. on Thursday but no tidings of them were received. The Douglas H. Thomas is not damaged as much as was first thought for, she came off into deep water again on Thursday morning. The City of Sydney received no damage and left Sydney for this port at 5.30 a.m. Thursday. She brought a full freight, including cattle and sheep, and the following passengers: Miss G. Carter, Miss Howe, Miss Cowan, Grant, McKay and four in cargo.

BEOTHIC'S NEW CHARTER.—The Beothic which was under charter to go from Halifax to London laden with apples will not go there, her charter having been cancelled. Instead she has been chartered by the Reid Navigation Co. to go to Sydney and carry cargo for her. She will be docked after unloading here.

If Constipated or Bilious--Cascarets.

No Biliousness, Headache, Sick, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Pained Tongue or Constipation.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver, and clogged bowels which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gasses, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, general cleansing, too.

At The City Hall.

Mayor Ellis presided at yesterday's Council meeting and Councillors Martin, Coaker, Ryan and Mullaly were present.

The Colonial Secretary wrote that Messrs. J. E. Bennett and C. O'N. Conroy had been appointed as the Court of Revision of City Appraisalment.

Mr. Harris, Secretary of the Board of Works, wrote that the Government will give the city a narrow strip of land between Waterford River and the Lunatic Asylum to extend the area of the new Bowling Park.

The Col. Secretary wrote that the Doctors Roberts would be responsible for the taxes on the building until lately occupied by the Admiralty Survey officers.

The indifference of certain officials of the Council was commented upon by the Mayor and Councillor Ryan, and the Office Committee will attend to the matter.

Councillor Mullaly asked that Garrison Park be staked off and trees planted there. This was agreed to. The Councillor also moved and the Board concurred that thanks be extended to Mr. W. H. Davidson for giving trees to the city at first cost.

The property of two teamsters (against whom judgment was given for taxes and who did not appear in court) will be attached.

Rev. M. Fenwick, for the Trustees, asked for an increased supply of water to the Methodist College where new lavatories were being erected at a cost of $600. Referred to the Engineer.

Councillor Mullaly spoke of a horse owners outside the city limits who was asked not to use the city streets. If such is true the amount paid will be refunded.

In reply to a communication of the Council of the 11th inst., the Colonial Secretary informed the Government had advanced $10,000 at 4 per cent or the extension of the water service to run below Ebsary's on the South side. The funds are in the Royal Bank of Canada.

Plans of proposed buildings on Gilbert Street were submitted by Halley & Co. and referred to Engineer.

Councillor Mullaly spoke of the necessity for a light on Kenna's Hill. He said the Government would defray half the cost. If this is so the light will be installed.

Councillor Ryan asked if it was intended to place a light on Allendale Road. It will be attended to.

Social Gathering Thrown Into Mourning

Sudden Death of W. R. Firth.

The entire community was shocked when the news was heard that Mr. William R. Firth had dropped dead in the British Hall last night, and it is with feelings of the deepest regret that we record his demise to-day. The deceased was attending the St. Bon's dance, which was to close the Bazaar, he did the promoters or the participants think that the social gathering would terminate so suddenly. It was after the second dance that Mr. Firth was stricken and responded to the summons and almost in an instant over five hundred people were thrown into profound grief. Heart failure was the cause of his death. When first he complained he staggered into the arms of Mr. H. Peddie, a personal friend of his. It was observed that he was dangerously ill and he was brought hurriedly to the lower flat of the hall by friends, who applied stimulants to revive him. Doctors O'Connell and Lynch were at hand and used all the science and skill they could devise to resuscitate the victim, but without success. Doctors O'Connell and Lynch, a life-long friend of the deceased, was summoned and administered the last rites of the Catholic Church before the last spark of life had fled to the great unknown. After the prayers for the dead were recited, the remains were confined by undertaker Myrick and brought to the late home of the deceased on Hayward Avenue, followed by a large concourse of citizens.

Mr. Firth's is one of the saddest affairs that has occurred for some time and all present could scarcely realize that their friend and associate, who was in buoyant spirits, during the evening had gone to his eternal reward. Deceased was in his 31st year and a son of the late Wm. R. Firth. He was educated at St. Bonaventure's College and entered the Customs Service sixteen years ago at which place he held a position of trust up to the time of his death. Will, as he was familiarly called, was of an affable and unostentatious disposition and a practical and devout Catholic. He was also a member of the Knights of Columbus and B. I. S. He leaves to mourn a mother, two brothers—Robert and Edward—and one sister, whom together with other relatives and friends the Telegram joins in the deep sympathy expressed.
