

Our Local People

HIS DIARY.

July 3rd.—To Government House, and there meet Lord Morris, and did have much discourse with him. He tells me how he is here on a holiday, but he also talks of divers things, which are now of much interest. Taking my leave of him, I did meet with Lt.-Col. Bernard, that was my old schoolmaster, and did have discourse with him. The talk of the town is of Sir R. A. Squires, and none know where he is, but it do seem how he hath left the country on the railway and will go to England. Pretty to see the way in which he doth at all times make fools of the public. And indeed, it seems as if we shall all be ruined very speedily, by what we see in the State. News from the North to-day tells how the people in divers settlements are high starvation nor can anything be done for them, but to give them charity. News of the Boat Clubs is that they will change their views, and will take their part in the Regatta.

Western Fishery News.

BANKERS DOING WELL. Inspector J. H. Dea, who arrived here yesterday from Placentia, reports a fair fishery along the Cape Shore, but from Placentia west to Odein the voyage so far has been practically a blank. At Burnin, St. Lawrence and Lawn, traps are doing fairly well, and prospects are good. The bankers all did well on their spring trips, but they have not reported yet on their caplin, baiting though these should be putting in an appearance shortly.

Norwegian Fishery Closed.

1922 1921
17,900,000 39,000,000
This fishery has now closed and the catch amounts to 8,900,000 more fish than last year.

Warning to Motorists.

EXCESS SPEED MAY MEAN PRISON.
Motorists convicted of greatly exceeding the speed limit on traffic hidden streets may in future have to go to prison without the option of a fine. In any case, the extreme fine will be imposed, according to the circumstances of the case. This warning was handed down yesterday in the Police Court by Judge Morris in finding a motorist $10 for driving over LeMarchant Road at a dangerous rate of speed. In this case it was Kousen's first offence. Otherwise the he would have been heavier. The judge said that the lives of citizens must be protected.

Park Memorial.

THE BOMBING NEWFOUNDLANDER. The memorial which Sir Edgar Bowring has presented to Bowring Park, will be erected soon, the Telegram learns. The memorial is a life size statue of the "Bombing Newfoundland", and is a splendid example of the sculptor's art. No arrangement for its erection and unveiling have yet been made, but Sir Edgar Bowring will probably give the matter his attention shortly.

St. Thomas' Sunday School Picnic.

The Sunday School Picnic for the children of St. Thomas' Church, takes place at Woodley's Farm tomorrow (Wednesday). The children will meet at Canon Wood Hall at noon, and will then call on his Excellency the Governor. The teachers will be greatly obliged to friends if they will send their cars to Government House at 12.15 to take the little bus to the grounds.

Under the Law or Under Grace

With the fixing of an agreement by which the country stands all loose, the railway is to be run by the Government until Nov. 15th. This is just what was expected by the Opposition, and now the Reids, it is presumed, are cleared from certain obligations, which by contract, should have been borne by them. Had the original—50 years contract—agreement been forced in recent years this colony would not have had to face present conditions as to-day. A broken agreement and accepting of the same by past governments, we should say nullifies all penalties, thus it was that money had to be continually paid out to keep the railway running until the climax this spring. The former contract as a consequence becomes of non-effect and the Reids seem to be able to bind over the colony or government to whatever demand seems to them necessary.

The railway system has for a long while been a problem for the Squire administration. Is it because the Hon. Sir is afraid to battle the watch or is it an impossibility to carry out his 1919 manifesto in which he promised much to the electorate? Many clauses we know were for vote pulling, and were never meant to be carried out if so why was not something done for a people who confided in them, as was shown by large majority votes?

It is rumored that an election is to be this coming fall as the present political power needs the sanction of the people re railway matters mostly. If this be true more might be said in reference to the incapacities of our rulers to cope with the problems before the country. Again, what will the people know as a whole what will suit the Reids or the Government as many contracts hang in balance, or is it the intention to cast all former documents aside and start all over anew? Now that the railway needs more to put it in good shape, is the colony wealthy enough to stand the strain of expenditure?

Some have suggested the whole business being taken over from Reids and put on tender. Why not a change be made and another party be given a chance to make it pay, where a businesslike deal might give new management some chance to profit on the turnover, and save the Government lost time in dabbling in the signing of useless contracts, which cause the loss of millions of money which this colony must get outside to meet demands.—Twillingate Sun.

The Cry.

Perhaps it's no use in talking or writing, yet the cry of the people is "down with the government," and no one can be blamed for this state of affairs, only those entrusted with the reins of government by the voter and taxpayer. The electorate were promised many things that the people favored, thus the pull with the party elected. . . Now the people, while having faith in men of seemingly refined sympathy, find out a bunch of "boddies and grafters" as Mr. Coaker used to say, as ever got in power.

If the South thinks the North is asleep, they are wrong; men are patiently awaiting another chance to mark a ballot paper and then you—friends of the South and West—will see a great change.

Effects of Rum.

MORE WINDOW BREAKING BY DRUNKS.

"Is there a new kind of rum on the market which causes those who take it to break windows?" This is the question which is now agitating the minds of the police. Within the past few weeks many drunks have been arrested for smashing glass in shops and houses. It is noteworthy that they confine their glass breaking to windows and not to bottles. A man was before the Magistrate yesterday charged with being drunk and breaking a pane of glass in a butcher's shop. He had to pay for the window.

Bowring Park.

SWIMMING POOL NEARLY READY.

The swimming pool at Bowring Park is now nearly ready for use. Manager Canning and his assistants have been hard at work during the past few days getting everything in readiness for the swimming season. The pool is quite large and varies in depth from eighteen inches to six feet. There is a comfortable shack in which bathers can undress and dress. It is possible that the pool may open to the general public tomorrow. Thousands make use of it each year.
