LOCAL NEWS

THE WEATHER.

Mostly fair, a few light snow falls or flurries. Colder again tonight.

L. Stockett, Bankhead, is registered at the Alberta.

J. A. Struthers, Lethbridge, came up yesterday on business.

W. J. McNamara arrived in the city from Edmonton last evening, and is registered at the Alberta.

A meeting of the delegates of the Western Canada baseball league was to have been held last evening, but was postponed until today.

An emergent meeting of Perfection Lodge, No. 9, A.F. and A.M., will be held this evening at eight p.m. Visiting brethren cordially invited.

A euchre party and entertainment took place last evening in St. Mary's hall. There was a large attendance and the proceeds went to the poor of the parish.

E. Sear, C.P.R. irrigation agent in Nebraska, who has been in the city during the past few days, left for home last evening. Mr. Sear has many people waiting to come up and see their lands, but they have not at present been able to do so owing to the snow. He also reports that during the spring the number of immigrants from his district coming into Canada will be a record one over any other season.

On Friday evening at the auditorium rink, the Ochs hockey team will meet the Calgary team in a hockey match. This game should be one of the best of the season, as the north boys have a good team, and have been beating all the other teams in the Central Alberta league. This will also be the strongest seven that Calgary has been up against this season, and it generally expected they will give the locals one of the hardest games they will be up against this season.

The adjourned annual meeting of the Alberta club was held last night. The following were appointed on the house committee: T. J. Skinner, T. A. Hatfield, Jno. Emerson, C. A. Calkins, R. A. G. Bell, A. M. Grogan, Geo. T. Young, F. R. Exham, H. A. Perley, Dr. E. G. Mason, C. P. Marker.

At the first meeting of the house committee the election of president and vice-president will be held. The first house warming banquet of the club will be held on Feb. 12.

The regular weekly meeting of the Royal Templars was held in the Nolan hall last night. The evening was largely devoted to business and it was decided to hold a concert on Feb. 11 in some Calgary hall and that an admission fee be charged to defray expenses. The concert has been under way for some time and some of Calgary's best talent have been secured. Mr. Mulholland, an old Royal Templar organizer and worker, was present and gave some very good advice towards running the lodge. After the business hour some games were played and everybody went home looking forward to another pleasant evening next Monday night.

BANQUET TO VISITING CURLERS

Very Successful Function at Which Calgary Was Host

The banquet given to the visiting curlers of the second annual bonspiel of the Alberta Branch, Royal Caledonia Curling Club of Scotland, was held last night at the Palmetto cafe, Mr. Hugh Macleod, presiding. He gave the toast to the King, which was responded to with the usual vigor.

In responding to the toast of "Calgary" Mr. McLeod called upon Mr. Aird, vice president, coupled with Mayor Cameron on behalf of the municipality and on Dr. MacRae on education. Mr. Aird and Mr. Cameron made first class speeches of welcome to the visiting curlers, as did Mr. McRae. Dr. MacRae gave a very humorous speech, and mentioned the fact that it might be a very hard job to educate some of those present, still he might say Messrs. Cressley and Hunter were still in the business. He advised moderation in the cup and mentioned the fact that in short time there was all probability of a university being established here.

Dr. Ings responded to the toast of "Game Ordinance," after which John Bruce of Lethbridge who was called upon for the song, "My Ain Fire Fide."

To the toast of "Visiting Clubs" Mr. Downes made a speech which was appreciated. The following were the toasts and responses: To the new club of Red Deer—Rev. Mr. Fortune. To other sports—Mr. Humphries and Mr. Norman McLeod of Lethbridge. To the Scotch of Priddis—Mr. Oxley. To the press—Mr. Byers. To the Calgary Curling Club—D. C. Bayne, Bankhead. To the genial president of the Calgary curling club—Mr. Irwin. To the secretary treasurer—Mr. Miphelon. To the High River club—Mr. Waugh. To the founder of curling in Alberta—Col. Walker. To the orchestra—Mr. Bagley. To the president of the Alberta Branch—Mr. McLeod.
