In MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Geo. Chandler, a dear husband and father, who departed this life on March 16, 1924. When evening shadows are falling And we are sitting all alone, In our hearts there comes a longing, If you only could come home. Oft and oft our thoughts do wander To a poor grave not far away, Where they laid our darling daddy One long, sad year ago, today.

Sadly missed by wife and family.

All Races, in The Eyes of Creator Are on a Par

The negro race, is bound to unfold and keep enriching the universe. Already this race, although kept under for so many years, has given us the only distinctly American music, and the ragtime so many of us enjoy and spend hours listening to, was originated by the Negro race. For spiritual music there is none like the Negro melodies, and for the rollicking comic I believe it has no equal. The race has also contributed to art, sculpture, literature and the art of dancing, and produced great orators.

It may be that an account of the past persecutions suffered by this race that they are finding expression to what lay latent for many years—and a soul expression, that in years to come will see the race leading in many walks of life, and more especially in the living and expounding of the Life and Message of the Master Mind from whom we receive all light, truth, understanding and love. This race has all the characteristics and essentials of producing leaders in religious thought, and in the building of the only life which all races are intended to live, viz. The life touched and predominated by the Divine Mind in every business and in every phase of life, to teach men to live their lives in the life of God and eagerly to spend their lives in helping God produce the race of men he intended in the carrying out of His great purpose and plan of life, love and service to God and love and service to one's fellowmen. To each other in the upward way.

"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you."

This is the making of a great race.
