LIFE ASSURANCE.
Mutual Life Insurance Company.
 No. 35, WALL STREET, NEW YORK.
 Capital, $900,000.
 SAMUEL HANNAH, Secretary. Jos. B. COLLINS, President.
 THE Undersigned, having been appointed Agent for this Company, is now prepared to grant Life Policies, and annuities, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. The Terms of the Society are very liberal, and it would be to the interest of parties who purpose effecting Insurance on their Lives, or upon the Lives of others, to make themselves acquainted with its Business and rates before effecting the same with any other Company. Its Business is rapidly increasing, and during the Month of February last, added $30,000 to its Capital. Premiums are paid yearly, half-yearly, or quarterly, at the option of the insured. It has already added upwards of 52 per cent to parties holding policies. The undersigned, being a member of the Society, and having been in the year 1845, to the enormous sum of upwards of three and a half Millions of Dollars. There are but few persons in the United States who have any conception of the extent of Business transacted by Mutual Life Insurance Companies. The New York Mutual is the only Company in Canada doing Business on purely Mutual principles, and so far, it has clearly established the fact, that Mutual Companies conducted upon a good basis, are the safest and cheapest. Every information will be given to parties, and Blankets and Pamphlets furnished gratuitously, by calling at my Office.

THE TOWN CHILD and the Country Child.
 BY ALLEN CUNNINGHAM.
 Child of the Country! free as air,
 Art thou, and as the sunshine fair,
 Born like the lily, where the dew lies
 Fed mid the May flowers, like the bee,
 Nurtured to sweet music on the knee,
 Lulled in the breast to that old tune
 Which winds through the woods of June:
 I sing of thee—its sweet to sing
 Of such a fair and glorious thing.
 Child of the Town! thy gait is swift,
 Aided red thy gait is swift,
 Art thou, and as the sunshine fair,
 Born like the lily, where the dew lies
 Fed mid the May flowers, like the bee,
 Nurtured to sweet music on the knee,
 Lulled in the breast to that old tune
 Which winds through the woods of June:
 I sing of thee—its sweet to sing
 Of such a fair and glorious thing.
