A BABY ASTRAY.Flushing, Mich., Jan. 4.—Mrs. Matthew Holly recently returned from a visit to Canada, accompanied by a year old male child, which was left in her care in a mysterious way. A veiled lady got on the Grand Trunk train at some point in Canada, and at the Sarnia tunnel handed Mrs. Holly the child.
She kept for a few minutes, while she left the train. Nothing was afterwards seen of the woman and Mrs. Holly, at a loss how to proceed, brought the child to this place.To The Deaf.A gentleman who cured himself of Deafness you are entitled to vote.—Miss Edith Brown, of Parkdale, is visiting Miss Green, 43 Cartwright street.—If the Western Fair is to be continued as a civic institution, it must have new buildings. Vote for the by-law on Monday.—The Week of Prayer will take place next week. Doubtless the managers of city churches will see to it that the meetings are duly advertised from day to day.—Mr. A. O. Jeffrey, who is seeking re-election in No. 2 ward, is one of the ablest members of the city school board. He has been an earnest advocate of the establishment of a Normal School in this city. His many friends in the ward should see to it that he is re-elected. Mr. Jeffrey's opponent is Mr. Bayly, son of Mr. Richard Bayly, barrister.—The North End Presbyterian Mission Sunday school held their anniversary entertainment in the school room last night.

The scholars and their friends were supplied bountifully with choice refreshments, after which an interesting programme was given, composed of songs, dialogues, choruses, recitations, instrumental selections, etc.
Rev. Robt. Johnston gave a suitable address. The school is in a prosperous condition, having an efficient staff of sixteen teachers and an average attendance of about 100.—At the annual Sunday school treat of the Richmond Street Methodist Church a fine Christmas tree laden with choice presents bespoke the thoughtfulness of the teachers for the scholars under their care.
The meeting was made pleasant through the presence of Mr. Geo. Robinson, who discharged the duties of chairman for the evening. The programme rendered was by the children of the school, who acquitted themselves in a manner that demonstrated the careful training they had passed through at the hands of Misses Harvey, Peel, and Stockwell. At the close of the programme the scholars were handed out to the various scholarships by Mr. W. H. Liddicott. The pleasant closing up of another year's work in connection with the school reflects great credit on the able superintendence of Mr.
Jos. Mitchell, jun.CITY SCHOOL TRUSTEE ELECTIONS.During the year citizens complain that the public schools are not properly managed.
But when election day comes many do not think it worth while to go to the polls and elect the best man offering. There are contests in five of the six wards on Monday, and good men are offering in each. In No.
2 ward, A. O. Jeffrey, an old and tried public servant, is again ready to serve the taxpayers. In ward 6, Mr. Greenlees has been elected by acclamation. In wards 1, 3, 4, and 5 the candidates are all new men.
The contests will be close, but the current report is that the likely winners will be Dr.
Logie in No. 1; Mr. Wm. Rowe, merchant, in No. 3; Mr. C. Johnston, boot and shoe dealer, in No. 4; and Mr. George Burdick in No. 5. All are good men, who can be relied on to use their best talents to manage the schools efficiently and economically.
During next year, more accommodation must be provided for the upper end of No. 4 ward, and Mr. Johnston has promised, if elected, to make that his first care.THE MEDAL PRESENTATION.A special meeting of the Board of Education was held last evening for the purpose of fixing a date for the presentation of the various school medals to the winners.
There were present Chairman Blackwell and Trustees Wilkins, Murphy, Sanders, Logan, Jeffrey, Greenlees, Merchant, Buchner, Wilson, Craig, Keenleyside, Johnston, Hunt and Secretary McEberhen.
It was moved by Mr. Greenlees, seconded by Mr. Logan, that the presentation be held at the Collegiate Institute at 3 p.m. on Tuesday next. The Robinson medals will be presented by Mayor Little and the others by a committee consisting of the chairman of the board and committees and the high school trustees. The matter of allowing the schools to be used for the municipal elections on Monday was taken up and after considerable discussion it was finally decided to close the following rooms for the day: Lorne avenue, Misses Howie and Black; Park street, Misses Kilbourne, Colborne street, Misses Mills and Mulveney; Princess avenue, Mr. Bryant and Miss Hayes; Waterloo street, Misses Ferguson and Evans. There will be no school in Queen's avenue kindergarten and Quebec street schools, but with these exceptions theBark-Well's secure votes. The majority of them begin on babies. A candidate for aldermanic honors has been known to pick up a cardinal-top, freckled-faced, pug-nosed baby and kiss it, and go right around to a corner drug store and drink strong liquor after it, just to get a vote.

There are aldermen who are honest and some who are not exactly truthful—that is, if they would cut down a cherry tree they would prove an alibi, or claim it was an ax-i-dent. The men who will represent usFOR '96Are the ones who have honest convictions or honest principles, who believe in themselves, who think they are right and stick to their principles. We are not in politics. We do not meddle with anything but business, and we are getting plenty of that to meddle with. But we do believe the idea of the successful alderman is right: Stick to your principles. Our principal principle is to sell goods for less than anyone else. Our second principle is to sell more of them. Our third principle is to sell good goods only—and we are going to stick closer to our principles than your country cousins stick to you on fair week.Fine Furs
