The license commission held a meeting last night. Messrs. Elliott and Jones and Inspector Brown being present. The application of Wm. Bernard to have the license of the Bernard House transferred to Paul Babcock, of Chatham, who recently purchased the hotel, was considered and granted. Several matters were laid over for future consideration.

COMRADES.

The following is from the pen of Mr. Harry Gorman, formerly a well-known Londoner, and now owner of the Sarnia Observer: "The Observer congratulates Dr. C. I. Campbell on his election as mayor of London. We are glad to see him in the position of city confer one of its highest honors upon an old-time typo who used to set up in the same alley when he worked at case together in the long ago."

LIBRARY BOARD MEETING.

Dr. A. O. Jeffery, O. Labelle, J. C.
Bazard, James E. Bland, and H. R. Bland attended the meeting of the Public Library board last night. Accounts to the amount of $328.40 were passed.
General discussion of books and magazines for December was 278. The fines amounted to 81 cents per day. It was decided to purchase a new copy of Egan's notice in regard to the Historical Society.

THE RAISON CASE.

The case of Robert Raison, who appeared against the police, was heard by Magistrate for selling liquor to minors, came up again before Judge Elliott. It was claimed that the case was in the information, and that as it had not been amended within thirty days the case must fall through. Mr.
T. G. Meredith, K. C., for the defend-ent, pleaded in mitigation that the information could be altered legally. The judge postponed his decision until the 23rd of this month.

WEDDED AT BARRIE.

Miss Janet Ada Spry, daughter of the late Daniel Spry, postoffice inspector, formerly of this city, was married at the residence of her mother, Mrs. E. R.
Cameron, manager of the Union Bank, Portland, Ont., son of Mrs. W. E. Roxburgh, of Newwood, W. V. White, vicar of Trinity church, officiated, in the presence of members of the interested families. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. P. M. McEl-Spry of Montreal, and was unattended.
The wedding costume was a goingaway gown of navy blue cashmere cloth, with beaver mink-trimmed hat.
Many gifts of unique design and chaste workmanship attested the favor in which the bride is held. At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held, after which Mr. and Mrs.
Cameron took the train for Quebec and points east, where the honeymoon will be spent.

DEATH OF A VETERAN.

The death occurred last evening of Mr. Patrick Byrne, a veteran of the British army. Mr. Byrne was in his 76th year. Born in Kilkenny, Ireland, he enlisted in the army at an early age as a member of the Sixtieth Rifles, serving with that regiment in the Crimean war, and participating in the siege of Delhi, at the surrender of which he was also present. Mr. Byrne also came to Canada with Lord Wolseley and took part in the expedition of 1870. He was a resident of London for 32 years. A widow and five children survive: James and William, at home; John, of Mitchell, and Mary and Kate, at home. The funeral will take place at the residence, Christie street, on Saturday morning at 9:30 to St. Peter's Cathedral, where requiem high mass will be celebrated. Interment at St. Peter's Cemetery.

No red Indians were ever more callous to pain than the aborigines of Australia. Old Australian settlers are fond of telling a famous story of a tribal chief who walked 60 miles with a spear sticking clear through his body before he could get help to pull it out.

RIDDELL—BLAIRIE

A very pretty home wedding took place on Wednesday, Jan. 4, at high noon at the residence of Mr. James Blairie, third concessioner of Westminster, when his daughter, Margaret, was married to Mr. Samuel J. Ridell, son of Mr.
George Ridell, the clerk of the township. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. McCrae. Only the immediate relatives of the two families were present as guests. The decorations were evergreens and carnations. The bride was attended by Miss Belle Ridell, and Mr. Archie Blairie supported the groom.
The bride looked very sweet in a gown of cream crepe de chine, and the bride-maid wore heavy gray crepe de chine.
After a dainty wedding breakfast and congratulations, the young couple left by the afternoon train for Toronto and other eastern points. They have the best wishes of a great host of friends for their future happiness.

GIVEN—GUSTIN

At the residence of the bride's parents, Jefferson street, Forest, on the 4th inst., Miss Alice M., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. W.
Gustin, became the bride of William E. Given, night agent at the Grand Trunk station in Forest, Rev. Kenneth J. McDonald officiating, some 60 or 70 guests being present. The bride was given away by her father, and looked lovely in cream colored silk with silk lace and applique. She was accompanied by her sister Lucena E. Gus-tin, attired in Parisian lawn with aplique trimmings. Mr. Harvey South, of Alisa Craig, was groomsmen, and Miss Stella Thomas played Mendelsohn's wedding march. After the ceremony and congratulations a choice dinner was served, and from 9 to 11 o'clock a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Given left by the 11:30 express for Detroit and other points. A number of relatives from Chicago, Detroit, Port Huron, London, Denfield and Georgetown were present at the wedding. The bride is a niece of Mrs. C.
E. L. Pratt, Hyman street, this city, who attended the wedding. She is also related to Mrs. Swain and Mr. Noyes, of Denfield.

auspices of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and the arrangements were exceedingly well carried out.

Well-known manufacturers from Hamilton, Toronto and other places were present, as well as a large number of gentlemen of the same occupation in the Forest City, Col. Gartshore, of the McClary Manufacturing Company, was in the chair in the absence of Mr.

The tables were tastefully adorned with flowers, foliage plants, palms and ornamental gas-lamps. A string orchestra, stationed in an adjoining room, dis-coursed sweet strains of music during the progress of the banquet.

Col. Gartshore, in welcoming his guests, said that the London manufacturers owed a debt to Toronto, and brothers who were in attendance from a distance, for he knew how hard it was for manufacturers to get away to also welcomed those guests who had
