RISKED DEATH FOR CAT LIOTTINGS FROM

Little Girl Plunges Into Pool and Narrowly Escapes Drowning.

New York, Aug. 25. - The love of a little girl for her pet cat almost cost her her life yesterday, Annie Engel-hardt, of No. 4064 Third avenue, plunged into a deep pool of water after her pet, which had been thrown into a 15-foot excavation by a gang of boys. That the child's life was saved was due only to the quick work of a passerby, who caught her just as she was becoming exhausted in the water, which was many feet over her head.
"Pretty Boy" for eight years has been practically a member of the Engelhardt family, and the especial favorite of Annie, with whom she was practically brought up. Through the days of her heavthcood Annie, and "Pretty Deseronto, arrived here on Sunday loads."
