HOLD RUNNING MEET ON NEW TRACK ABOUT LAST OF AUGUST

Mr. J. L. Counsell, of Hamilton, Who Is at Head of London Jockey Club, Coming to City Soon To Make Arrangements for Fixing Course.

Mr. J. L. Counsell, of Hamilton, who is one of the prime movers in the purchase of 125 acres in East London for a one-mile racetrack, will be in this city in a short time to make arrangements for considerable work in connection with the track this spring and summer.

Mr. Counsell was communicated with over the long-distance telephone Wednesday afternoon, and said that he expected to have everything in readiness for a meet in this city in August or September.

SLAUGHTER OF PIGS IN NEW DISTRICTS

Bylaw Says Porkers Must Not Be Kept Within City Limits—City Gains in Other Ways.

Since the pestiferous pig of Pottersburg was killed the edict has gone forth that all other porkers, which are now residents of the city, must be slaughtered, and in the last few weeks a number have gone to their deaths by way of the knife.

There is a city bylaw which says pigs must not be harbored within the city limits, and when calling, Pottersburg, Chelsea Green and Knollwood Park were made part of the city a number of residents of those sections were owners of the meat that is tabooed by Jews. The health officials of the city got busy, and notices were sent to the owners that the animals must either be deported from the city or killed.

During the past few weeks, butchers have reported that pork has been a drug on the market, and what was hard to get for some men proved fortunate for others, because the price was lowered a little.

The city will also benefit in other ways. For one thing, there are a number of dogs in the newly-annexed districts, and the owners of these will have to drop into Inspector McCallum's office and donate $2 to the city coffers to pay for the privilege of keeping them. Then again there are a number of unmarried men living in those districts who formerly had to do a day or two's work on the public highways in lieu of paying statute taxes to the city now, and Mr. McCallum is already getting his list ready to send notices to these men, asking them to call and settle.

Mrs. George Wrigley, of Toronto, is making an extended visit at the home of her brother, Mr. W. H. Weston, 64 Stanley street.

Mrs. A. M. Sutherland, of Calgary, a former resident of South London, visited friends in that section of the city this week en route to Saginaw, Mich., where her daughter resides.

to build, so we will have to erect temporary stands to accommodate the people."

When asked how many people he expected to attend the races, Mr. Counsell said that if an average of 5,000 a day could be secured he would be well pleased.

PUPILS RELY ON WHAT DR. SHAW SAYS

Boys of London South School Tell Principle They Won't Stay In.

That the pupils of the city schools are paying considerable attention to the remarks of Dr. Shaw was emphasized yesterday afternoon at a South London school, when a number of boys who were disorderly at 4 o'clock were told to wait for a few minutes by the teacher. One of the boys immediately told the teacher that "Dr. Shaw said you couldn't keep us in," but when visions of what might happen the next day came before their minds they decided to wait.

FORMER POTTERSBURO PASTOR DOING WELL

Rev. Hector Mackay Receives Salary Increase of $150 a Year.

Word of the success attending the work of Rev. Hector Mackay, a former pastor of Pottersburg, has been received in this city. At the last annual meeting of his congregation it was decided to give him an increase of $150 a year. The entire church and manse property is now free from incumbrance, while the missionary donations were six times as much last year as the previous year.

The Ladies' Aid of the church surprised Mrs. Mackay shortly before the annual meeting by installing a blue enamel steel range in the kitchen.

SECURED HOCKEY PLAYERS

Mr. Harry Axt, of Exeter, was the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. W. W. Kaiser, 136 Wharncliffe road, on Wednesday. While in the city, Mr. Axt, who is manager of the Exeter hockey team, made arrangements for a couple of local players to play for the northern team this evening in a game against the Seaforth Intermediate O. H. A. team in Exeter.

$1,470 Off One Acre

Mr. Charles E. Finch, of West street, Ealing, is able to settle all arguments to the effect that there is no money in market gardening or truck-farming on a small place near the city.

Mr. Finch has one acre of ground on West street, near the river, which was for many years just outside the city limits, but which is now part of the city, since annexation. Every year Mr. Finch plants all kinds of seeds and roots for garden truck, and every summer and fall he brings many wagonloads to the market for sale.

Last year Mr. Finch realized $1,470 off the produce grown on the one acre, and he claims that he has never made less than $1,000 in the past five years. There are a number of other market gardeners living in that vicinity, and the majority of them are doing nearly as well as Mr. Finch.

A New Feature

This "Greater London" section has been started for readers of The Advertiser living in the outlying districts of the city, and will deal with questions of importance to Chelsea Green, Ealing, Pottersburg, Knollwood Park, West and South London.

CHELSEA GREEN LIGHTS TURNED ON TONIGHT

Inclemency of the Weather Will Not Permit of a Celebration.

Chelsea Green will be lighted with power from the city tonight, and it is expected that the 40 lights which have been erected throughout the suburb will supply an adequate light for all the streets.

Employees of the water commission have been busy in the Green for some time, and the work of stringing the wires and erecting the lights was completed last night.

Arrangements for a big celebration, in which a large bonfire will play a prominent part, are being made by Mr. E. St. Claire Aldrich. Mr. E. W. Mitchell will light the fire at 8 o'clock, and several speakers from the city are expected to be on hand.

STOLE THERMOMETER

Someone "Lifted" Weather Guide From Front of Store.

Some of the residents of South London are not particularly pleased with the weather at present, and on Tuesday night someone unknown, stole the thermometer on the store of Messrs. Pritchett & Hinds as a protest against the cold weather.

The weather of the past week has made the sleighing in the country the best of the season, and a large number of the farmers of Westminster and Dorchester townships have brought in large loads of baled hay over the Wharncliffe road.

PROGRESSIVES AGREE WITH SCHOOL BOARD

Dr. Shaw's Action Commended By West London Citizens' Meeting.

Dr. Shaw's action in refusing to increase the salaries of the Collegiate teachers was the principal topic for discussion at the meeting of the West London Progressive Association on Wednesday evening.

A resolution was adopted, proposed by Mr. R. A. Y. Stinchcombe and seconded by Mr. Bell, that the association endorse the action of Dr. Shaw and his colleagues on the board of education.

In moving the resolution, Mr. Stinchcombe said that a halt would have to be called somewhere in the matter of increasing salaries.

"As soon as a man gets into the municipal trough, he's never satisfied," he stated. "The thing may adjust itself in time, but it will be a pretty expensive commodity by the time it does."

Mr. J. J. Clark and Mr. E. Pococke were opposed to having the association place itself on record in the matter, but after considerable discussion, the motion was put and carried.

Vice-President Joseph Lawrence, of the South London Progressives, was present as a delegate from that body. He repeated his charges made at the meeting of that association Tuesday evening, that property-owners in the central portions of the city were being favored in the matter of assessments by the assessment department.

He also deplored the steady advance in the salaries of city officials, and read an itemized list of the salaries of the city hall staff and the water commission. The total amounted to $63,987, which, he considered, far too high for a city of 50,000 people.

He favored abolishing altogether the office of public utility commissioner as a useless expenditure of the city's money. The proposed office of superintendent of streets he characterized as "another sucker looking out a job."

The public schools, he averred, would make suitable polling booths at election time, and the city would save thereby $10 yearly in each polling division. They could also be used by the candidates to speak in prior to the election.

Indorsed School Board. He heartily indorsed the action of the school board in refusing to grant increases of salary to the Collegiate teachers. He also expressed disapproval of the single-session kindergartens, "Let's abolish the kindergartens altogether, and save money," he said.

He suggested having a bylaw to this effect submitted along with the breakwater and storm-sewer bylaws. Mr. Stinchcombe did not agree with Mr. Lawrence in what he said regarding the city's assessment system. "I think Mr. Grant shows no favoritism, and that his valuations are very fair," said Mr. Stinchcombe. "The claim that the burden of taxation was being lifted from the shoulders of downtown property-holders to be sustained by those in the suburbs," he said, "was ridiculous. I can pick out three buildings in London that pay more taxes than the whole of West London," he averred.

Satisfactory Progress. Mr. E. Pococke reported for the committee which waited upon the city council on Monday evening in regard to the breakwater bylaw. The members expressed satisfaction with the work done by the committee, and a vote of thanks was tendered them.

Mr. William Nichol reported that the petition asking for new steps at the foot of Central avenue would be ready for presentation to the council a week from Monday night.

MR. AND MRS. WELSH RECEIVE PRESENTS

Former Given Suitcase and the Latter Spoons by Members of Chelsea Green Church.

Men of the Presbyterian Church of Chelsea Green and the women of the Ladies' Aid assembled at the home of Mr. F. Welsh, Chelsea Green, Wednesday night and presented Mrs. Welsh with a case of silver spoons and Mr. Welsh with a suitcase.

Mr. Welsh, who has been an active member of the church for some time, leaves shortly for Clinton, where he has purchased a farm. The evening was spent in music and games, and refreshments were served by the hostess.

STORM PLAYS HAVOC

Outlying Districts Were Snowbound This Morning.

Wind and snow played havoc with traffic in Ealing, Pottersburg, Chelsea Green and Knollwood Park this morning, it being hard for merchants of those sections to get out the regular deliveries on account of the snow-drifts.

The Pere Marquette tracks, which run through Chelsea Green, were completely covered, and a snowplow sent into London from St. Thomas found some difficulty in navigating. Employees of the hydro-electric commission at work on poles on Hamilton road, throughout Ealing found much difficulty in climbing to the poles, and several of them had to descend to the ground on account of the intense cold.

HELD SURPRISE PARTY.

The Misses Pennecott, of 60 Craig street, South London, were agreeably surprised Tuesday night when a surprise party of 45 friends gathered at their home. The evening was spent in games and music, and at the close refreshments were served by the hostesses. Miss McLeod, Miss Cox and Miss Tynan were responsible for the party.
