Fierce Street Fights Between the Nationalists and Orangemen.

THE POLICE KEPT BUSY

Londonderry, Ireland, Aug. 14. The police again today were constantly employed in suppressing street fighting between Nationalists and Orangemen. Numerous charges were made by the police, who used their clubs freely. An elderly man named Armstrong was shot dead during the fighting, which began at a political celebration Tuesday. Mr. Armstrong was looking out of an upper window of his home when he was His brother says he saw four constables pursued by a mob their carbines and fire, but the police strenuously deny having done so. The mob was so dense and the confusion so great that it is difficult to tell what happened. According to persons, however, the police fired over the heads of the mobs, the members of which replied with revolvers. Several persons were re-moved to hospitals suffering from wounds. Among them was a con-

Early today the magistrates held a meeting, and decided among other precautionary measures to have all taverns in the disturbed district closed at 7 o'clock this evening. Late tonight it was decided to requisition Quiet had been restored at midnight.
