London observatory the rainfall was recorded as 1.98 inches, or practically odists and members of the big union two solid inches of rainfall during the Sunday school picnic held jointly by two solid inches of rainfall during the night. This is a record that has not been touched for many, many years.

Visions of Edmonton floods and a deluged West London were conjured up as the rain continued to teem down, but in spite of the exceptionally heavy fall very little damage was reported throughout the city.

MANY ARE GOING TO EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

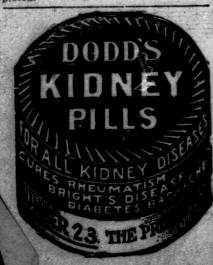

Bishop Fallon and Number of Others Expected To Attend.

Extensive preparations are being made or the Canadian Eucharistic Congress be held in Montreal from July 13 to aly 15. The congress has been called Archbishop Bruchesi, and already 25 ishops have signified their intention of attending. It is expected that Bishon Fallon and a number of other delegates will attend from London.

The announcement that an open-air mass will be held on the brow of Mount Royal during the congress will likely attract a great number of lay visitors in to the members of the clergy who will attend. Plans have been made for the entertainment of the latter at the Grand Seminary, the Seminary of Philosophy, and the Outremont and Mount St. Mary Convents, on the rush days of the congress, as it is fully expected that the hotel accommodation of the city will be taxed by the great number of lay visitors added to the regular tourist and holiday traffic.
