Young People of London Churches Offered Helping Handby Y.M.C.A.

Not the least important factor in program; of this number 57 were siding the Protestant Churches of London along towards their desired given practical demonstrations. Leadership was supplied for a large number of picnics.

During the summer 19 complete London along towards their desired goal of close co-operation is the extension efforts of the Y. M. C. A.

No longer is the "Y," as it is fondly known, merely an organization where young men of this city, irrespective of religious creed, may gather for three-cornered development. Through the efforts of self-sacrificing men it has been developed into a vital, living force, which has sent out innumerable strong helping arms into the religious and community life of the city.

Head of Turkish Delegation Has Full Power To Negotiate.

LEAVES FOR LAUSANNE

Constantinople, Nov. 17.—It is reported here that the Angora government will make formal representations to Great Britain for the return of the sultan to the Kemalists, pointing out that only the Great National Assembly of Turkey has authority to direct the sultan's movements, and de-claring that he must face trial, as ordered by the government.

Paris, Nov. 17.-Before leaving for Lausanne this evening Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish Nationalist delegation to the forthcoming conference, said he had full powers from the Angora Assembly to conclude terms of peace. It was apparent however that he was not sure he would be able to reach a satisfactory conclusion.

"Well, will it be peace or war?" he asked in the course of a conversation. "Will the allies let us have eventual attitude of the British if the other than war. Instructions Are Absolute.

"My instructions on that point are absolute," Ismet said. "The as-sembly at Angora reasons not in terms of Europe, but by its own logic. As far as the Straits are con-cerned, we are indifferent. What-ever satisfies the allies and others interested will satisfy us."

Turkish spokesmen indicate that if wish to retain their pres French are willing there will probably be no Turkish objection.

One significant fact advanced in n with the possibilities in the Anglo-Turkish relationship that the Angora government's treaty with Afghanistan provides for an of-fensive-defensive alliance against Great Britain. The signers of this agreement are obliged to assist each other in the event of a British at-papers today echo the chorus of praise which was accorded by their morning paper conferers to Edward Johnson, the Canadian tenor, who made his initial debut with the Metropolitan Opera Company last night. Mr. Johnson sang the role of Avito in Montemezzi's "L'Amore dei Tre Re," Lucrezia Bori being the Fiora.

One of the factors contribu-

Mr. Johnson is no stranger to New York, having sung important roles some of the critics.

This is indicated in the remarks of some of the critics. During his visit to Paris Ismet has been much disturbed by reports that the allies were arranging terms of peace before the opening of the conference, and that later they would merely present him with joint terms that would not permit discussion.

In many quarters there is apparently much speculation as to the averaged of the British if the
