ANNIVERSARY MARKED BY EMBRO METHODISTS Rev. F. Langford of Toronto

Is Speaker-Union Service

Special to The Advertiser. Embro, June 9.-The anniversary services held on Sunday at the Methodist church were well attended. Rev. Mr. Langford of Toronto delivered two impressive addresses. At night there was a union service of the three churches, held on the lawn at there was a union service of the three churches, held on the lawn at the church. The choir rendered two anthems, Mrs. Hunt and Mr. Peat sang a duet and Mr. Peat sang a solo. Rev. G. C. Raymer presided. The Bible lesson was read by Rev. Mr. Lane. Rev. C. Tavener led in prayer.

FOSS WILL RUN ON RECIPROCITY

Former Governor of Massachusetts Wants Closer Relations With Canada.

Special to The Advertiser. Boston, Mass., June 9 .- Former Governor Eugene N. Foss is a candidate for congress in the fifth district; to fill out the unexpired term of the late John Jacob Rogers of Lowell, on one issue alone, reciprocity, free and complete reciprocity with Canada. It's the same plank upon which he rode into congress back in 1910 from the cape district, and which also placed him in the governor's chair three times. It's not a new idea by any means, for the former governor admits that he visualized it 25 years ago, to use his own words. But for him it has been a winner.

This time he is a candidate as a Democrat, merely because the Republican party is controlled by a gang of stand-patters, who have hoodwinked the people long enough on this matter of reciprocity, he says. He is now a Democrat because he believes in most of the principles of the Democratic party, but does not subscribe to all the party's policies, he says.

the party's policies, he says.
"I am not a pessimist or a calamity howler, old boy, but all I am fighting for is a fair chance for New Eng-land, so that New England may once more take her place in the sun,'

The former governor says that a quarter of a century ago he visualized the present situation in New England, and he foresaw then that Canada was New England's best bet "Canada has the raw materials we want, and Canada needs our manu-facturers, so why shouldn't we have complete reciprocity with Canada.

"And I'm in this fight just as muc for Canada as I am New England he concluded with emphasis, RED CROSS ASKS FOR FLORAL GIFTS

Appeals To Public To Brighten Lives of Men at Sanatorium.

The Red Cross society believes that the people of London who are so fortunate as to own both cars and gardens ought to remember the men at the Byron sanatorium when their flowers are in bloom. Many of the men, the members say, rarely have flowers of their own, and those in bed especially are very fond of them. The Red Cross committee is generous about taking flowers to the hospital but even their gardens will not stretch out indefinitely to supply all the patients. So, at their meeting yesterday, they sent out this little reminder for the public. The meeting was held at Eldon House, the home of Mrs. Ronald Harris, the president, and following the meeting the members strolled about the lovely garden on the river

the Byron committee during

The society is planning to launch out on a large program for home nursing classes in the city, the efforts of the past year having been exceptionally successful.
