Joshus standing before an angel he saw Satan by his side to resist him (Zechariah ill., 1.) These biblical passages have given rise to a superstitious belief which has taken deep root, not only in the hearts of our people, but also in those of the numerous adherers of Christi-anity and Islam.

In the New Testament Satan is identified

There was a fair business flone in fruits to day at the wharves and Union Station. Prices as a state which we have a second of the state of the stat halmi of Rosh Hashana—"did the people of Israel bring with them from Babylon during the reign of Cyrus."

Thus the Christian world is indabted for the invention of Satan, who embeliesies their Testament, not to the Jews, but to the Persians. Also the believers in Kabbalah are indebted for the nom-melature of angels and demons which they possess to nobody else but to the Persians. The Persian doctrines of angels and demonstrated the majority of our people so that they adhere to it up to the present day. This doctrine has become the nucleus of many of our prayers. The Kabbalistic rabbis have even gone a step The Kabbalistic rabbis bave even gone a step further, and have identified Satan with the serpent which enticed Adam and Eve to trespass against God's commandment. And gradually they have advanced bim to she high position of Malach Hamoyess, angel of death. Hence one of the sages says: "Hu, Hasatan, Hu Hajezer hora, Hu Hamalach bamoyess." "The Satan, the enticer to evil, and the angel of death are one and the same being."

This view, however, was not shared by all rabbis. There were many who bitterly op-

This view, however, was not shared by all rabbis. There were many who bitterly opposed it. The Talmud B'raghoth, page 33, relates; "In the place where Rabbi Chanina ben Dosa resided a screent endangered the lives of the people. The rabbi succeeded in doing away with the serpent and convincing the people that not the screent killeth, but sin." This story untimates the idea that Rabbi Chanina ben Dosa worked to destroy the prevalent belief that the old screent Nachash Hakadnony was the Malach Hamocess who hurls people into untimely graves. The rabbi endeavored to show that untimely death is due to some cheth, yes, some deviation from God's precepts which are compatible with the laws of nature.

Between the wishing of a dreadful thing and the first motion, all the interim is like a hideous dream, the genius and the mortal instruments are then in conneil and the state of man like to a little kingdom suffers then the nature of an insurrection, and he is fully as much excited as when he finds that he has paid five oldiers more for his cuit of refetties than he could dry the same goods at the Army and Navy Stores, 135 King street east and 188 Yonge-street, THE NEW PLAID Window Shadings for Store and Office Fronts are minu-factured by Macfarlane, McKinlay & Co.
