DIVIDEND NO. 9.

tice is hereby given that per annum has this day been de plared on the pald-up capital stock rear ending 31st December, 1894. on and after the 2nd day of Janu-

By order of the Board. A. E. PLUMMER,

LET AT REDUCED RENT 85 WELLES-

ATIVE WINE - FINEST WINE AT lowest prices. Direct importer of wine spirits. The largest stock in the West End. phone 2134. C. E. Vardon, 543 Queen-street

AKVILLE DAIRY—478 YONGE-STREET.
guaranteed pure farmers' milk supplied all only. Fred Sole, proprietor. AMES BOWDEN, 162 ADELAIDE-STREET

W. L. FORSTER, PUPIL OF MONS Bougereau. Portraits in Oil, Pastel, etc. dio, 81 King-atreet cast.

VETERINARY. ONTARIO VETERINARY COLLEGE, TEM-

W. NEWTON, TEACHER OF BANJOGuitar and Mandolin, Private lessons, orough instruction, Clubs conducted reasons. Studio: Nordheimer's, 15 King-street east, Lum to 5 p.m. Evening lessons only at resince, 6 Irwin-avenue, off Yonge-street.

RIGGS, DENTIST-BEST TEETH ON PLATES only $8; crowning and bridging a specialty.

OST OR STOLEN—SMALL SQUARE BLACK valies, on Monday night about 7:30, in the eighborhood of Rose-avenue and Winchestertreet with Verral transfer label pasted on botom, addressed to 79 Pembroke-street. Reward Verral Transfer Co., Union Depot.

LLAN & BAIRD, BARRISTERS, ETC., Canada Life Buildings (ist floor, 40 to 46 g-street west, Toronto; money to loan, W. T. an, J. Baird.

TOOK, MACDONALD & BRIGGS, BAR-AIDLAW, KAPPELE & BICKNELL, BAR risters and Solicitors, Imperial Bank Buildings, Toronto. William Laidlaw, Q.C.; George Lappele, James Bicknell, C. W. Kerr.

DAVISVILLE HOTEL, WALTER H. MINNS, proprietor, Davisville, North Toronto, Ont. Street care pass the door. Meals on European polan, First-class boarding stable attached. Every accommodation for driving parties, lists and summer boarders.

USSELL HOUSE, ORILLIA—RATES $1 TO

Every accommodation for families visiting the city, being healthy and commanding a magnificent view of the city. Terms moderate. ed JOHN AYRE, Proprietor.

THE TORONTO WORLD physicians and others were so startling

HAMILTON OFFICE.

WHOLESALE NEWSDEALERS.

work ranged from three to nine dollars a week, and many of them have to support others out of these people after six mouths steel mixed with from three to five per cent. of nickel is double the strength of ordinary steel, and as it does not corrode of take on barnacles, ships constructed of it will possess the very great advanof take of paragrees, ships of state of the very great advantage of never requiring to be scraped.

Moreover, as ships of nickel-steel may absolutely stamped out. He urged this absolutely stamped out.

dinary steel ships, their engine power and consumption of coal may be safely reduced without dimulation of speed. In short, according to this 'writer, such short, according to this 'writer, but on the whole a large number of weak concerns go to the wall." First here are able to report a growth in the business of the present and the wanter of white, but on the whole a large number of weak concerns go to the wall. There may be a considerable supplementation are able to report a growth in the business of the present and the treatment of the present and the treatment of the present and the present time, it is the cause of obtaining in the present and the present time, it is the cause of obtaining and the present time, it is the cause of the present time, it is the cause of obtaining and the present time, it is the cause of obtaining and the present and th

Our railways are still depressed as to their earnings. But there is prospect to a revival in railway building before long, and railway building goes invariably with good times. Next season, so ed and distributed about thirty thouse we are informed by these who are able to the specific product of the society has printed and distributed about thirty thouse we are informed by these who are able to the specific product of the society has printed and distributed about thirty thouse we are informed by these who are able to the specific product of the society has printed and distributed about thirty thouse we are able to the specific product of the spec to know, the building will be confined in culosis" and "How Persons Suffering great measure to local electric lines, but from Tuberculosis Can Avoid Giving the there are a number of big projects now Disease to others." on paper and in the various stages pre- The arguments which prove the peces-they might just as well make up their number of victims in all its stages in minds to a reduction in the rate of interest, both on deposits and on loans.

There is not enough money to be had at five per cent. And if any of the banks have not yet wiped off the losses they made in the late period of inflation, they had better do it now. When we are going through a period of penance the welfare of the rest of the city. The the penance ought to be ample and suf- 800 sick people are a constant menace licient for the evil complained of. Bankers have of late resorted much to an absurd practice of theirs, that of, in times like these and after they have been too liberal to those who were their favorites, taking it out of their small, to the health of the rest of the community. If by any process they could be completely segregated from the rest of the citizens the victims of this distressing malady would am," and the court quelled the conseficient for the evil complained of. Bank- to the health of the rest of the taking it out of their small-er and less favored customers. This is the case with many a small business tarium will not bring about this com-that is sounder now than it was three plete isolation, but it will have a ten-years ago; yet, in consequence of big dency in that direction. Along with sses in the big and pet accounts, the the hospitals there would arise a society little customers are treated with a harshness altogether uncalled for. A banker's fits of virtue are not as a usual thing altogether edifying. And the way the small traders are walloped a citizen has offered to contribute $25,- ound to lend its money to them when ditionally. therefore, they ought to get it. No one some of our banks are having a big dose of this lesson.

THE PROPOSED CONSUMPTIVE SANITARIUM.

The building of a consumptive sanitarium in Philadelphia is now being actively discussed by the council of that city. An ordinance has been submitted for an appropriation of one hundred thousand dollars for this purpose, and the submitted submitted thousand dollars for this purpose, and the submitted submitted thousand dollars for this purpose, and the submitted submit it is expected that the state legislature Whotelly decreased that the state legislature will further supplement the grant and subjust and commanding a magniful society. Terms moderate.

JOIN AYRE Propietor.

FINANCIAL.

AMOUNT OF PRIVATE FUNDS to vertice seed, Read & Knight 76 Kingsareet east for once the great of its completion. A committee representing the Pennsylvania Society for the Pennsylvania Society for the Service Seed Toronto- described by the States that the Finance Committee of the coundable Mexico, tourist sleepers to Los and San Francisco without grant plants the finance Committee of the coundable Mexico, tourist sleepers to Los and San Francisco without grant plants the finance of the pennsylvania Society for the Pannet, life policies and other security.

TO LOAN ON MORTGAGES, montes, life policies and other security of the Search of the Coundable of the facts and figures adduced by the Street, Toronto.

TES FOR LARGE OR SMALL and figures adduced by the facts and figures adduced by the facts and figures adduced by the streets, Toronto. will further supplement the grant and there are in the city of Philadelphia at all times about 4000 cases of consump-tion, the vast majority of whom are very poor. Probably, 2000 of the 4000 are incapicated for work by reason of the progress of the disease, and of these about 1000 require extra diet and attendance, nursing, constant medical attendance, nursing, constant medical attendance, and somewhat of a fadateur.

A young artist accompanied her in her explorations for the quaint and curious and she thought a great deal of him. There was a time when, by the asking, he might have shared the De Beaumont millions, but he didn't catch on, and millions, but he didn't catch on, and expensive food, sick-room utensils and medicine. Of te 2000 whho are incapacitated for work probably 1500 are compelled during health to earn their own afely be built much lighter than ordinary steel ships, their engine power and consumption of coal may be safely reduced without diminution of speed. In e are informed by those who are able sand tracts on "How to avoid Tuber- a fool answer to a civil inquiry.

there are a number of big per stages preon paper and in the various stages preparatory to actual construction, and in all probability 1896 will see them under way. Their promoters are for the present confined to preliminary work, but sent confined to preliminary work, but have more or less substantial prothey have mo banker's fits of virtue are not as a usual thing altogether edifying. And the way the small traders are walloped over the shoulders by his mightiness, the one of the unsatisfactory state of the city will grant a site. We feel satistically and then remarked the city will grant a site. We feel satistically and the city will grant a site. We feel satistically and the city will grant a site. We feel satistically and the city will grant a site. We feel satistically and the city will grant a site. We feel satistically and the city will grant a site. We feel satistically and the city will grant a site. We feel satistically a satistically and the city will grant a site. We feel satistically a satisfication of the city will grant a site. We feel satistically a satisfication of the city will grant a site. the big accounts is sometimes to warm fied that citizens at large will not fail the cockles of the heart of the bank so- to contribute handsomely towards so licitor's boy when he pays his daily visit deserving an object. While nothing can to the ledgerkeepers at about 3.15 be done by the present council, it is to be hoped that aldermen who take office Only less amusing than the "virtue next year will take up this matter at aroused" of the manager is the idea once and give it concrete shape by possessed by so many individuals of ungranting such a bonus as will bring certain business standing that a bank is the $25,000 that has been granted conthey apply for it. They wish to do this they wish to do that with it, and, Running Horse Third. refore, they ought to get it. No one has a right to the use of a bank's money. The bank surely can do as it thinks best with its own; but it is also beyond disput that when a banker proceeds on the policy of denying to a small customer a favor because of his over-liberality to a big one he is doing his bank a substantial injury.

It will be many a day, however, before our banks learn that their greatest danger is in the big accounts and of those firms that attempt too many things, and in the accounts of the directors, than in the ordinary small accounts. Even now some of our banks are having a big dose of this lesson.

The PROPOSED CONSUMPTIVE SANITAGE THE PROPOSED CONSUMPTIVE Johnson's time of 1.35 2-5 for a mile

Wabash Edilo d Company.

Another friend met me white I was on horseback the other evening, and when I stopped in response to his hall he said: 'How dy' do?' Are you taking a ride?' I wonder if he thought I was walking?' At this point the two were joined by a third man, who had evidently been with the dude earlier.

"Hallo Chollie." he said. 'did you get here at last?"

"No," replied Chollie, looking hopelessly at the man he had been talking with, "I haven't got here yet. Can't you see I haven't?" And the third man demanded an explaination of such

The Lawyer and the Witness The attorney thought the witness was a plumb born idiot and proceeded ac-

"Um—how old are you?"

"Twenty-six, goin' on 27."

"You are going on 27, are you?"

"I guess so. Leastways, I ain't goin'
away from it."

"Where do you live?"

"At home."
This nettled the lawyer.
"Well," he asked, "do yo "Well," he asked, "do you know what I would do if I were you?"

Why, do they write it X-mas? Why,
Because it is the season
It takes an extra "X" to buy
A present—that's the reason? Valuable Information. "Anything new in your line?" asked

"Well, old man, how is business?"
"Booming," said the manufacturer of sporting goods. "I have just received an order for four million pairs of sprinting shoes for the Chinese army."—In-In a Scotch Country Church, Lately a number of ministers were assembled for a ceremonial function. The organist, getting tired of sacred and the bustling crowd on the sidewalk.

NO MARIA.

It was very evident that this was their first visit to the metropolis and equally evident that they were a newly wedded pair on their honeymoon trip.

A gentleman who had all the earmarks of a Wall street broker also stood on the common trip.

A gentleman who had all the earmarks of a Wall street broker also stood on the common the common trip.

marks of a Wall street broker also stood on the corner, stopping for some reason not apparent unless it was to observe on whom his eyes were intently fixed.

Presently the male member of the pair caught this gentleman's eye, and a look of infinite relief sprang into his own.

He said something to the young woman and left her side to approach the broker, whom he accosted as follows:

"You belong tew the city don't yew. "You belong tew the city, don't yew, now?"
"Yes, sir," answered the broker good ingly.

"I guess yew was bred an born here," said the countryman confidentially.
"That's about it," replied the broker, still smiling and willing to humor him, though for the life of him he could but up here I don't seem to be anythin. I tell yew, mister, I feel it—in hereyes."

'That is rather awkward," replied the broker sympathetically. "What you need is a guidebook to the city. That will tell you everything you want to know. Just step up the street a little, and I'll show you a store where you can get one."

'Can I leave Marler standin there?"

'If you think it necessary."

'It be."

'All right. Come along."

in a third.

The four or five pedestrians grew to five or 10, and 10 to 20 or 30.

'He's balky, eh?" queried a fat man as he forced his way into the crowd.

'Holler in his ear!" shouted a boy, who was up on balky horses.

'All you fellers git hold and push the wagin! "commanded a citizen, who appeared to be a born leader of men.

The crowd grew to 50—80—100, and the street was blocked. Men examined the wheels of the wagon, the feet of the horse and the harness. The

"I'm ever so much obleeged to you, mister," was his final remark." You've bin real kind an done a heap for

here at last?"

"No," replied Chollie, looking hopelessly at the man, he had been talking with, "I haven't got here yet. Can't you see I haven't?" And the third man demanded an explaination of such a fool answer to a civil inquiry.

The Lawrer and the Witness.

nowadays in the metropolis. An owner of some down-town property was awakened by the loud ringing of the door bell recently in Harlem.

"What on earth is that?" he exclaimed. "Is the house on fire?"

"Somebody's dead," said his wife. In the mean time a servent was relatively.

have to go down, I suppose."

He quickly threw on some clothing and went below. Two "gents" awaited him in the hall.

"I beg your pardon, sir, for knocking you up at this hour, but I want to make you a proposition for bill-boards around the corner of your place on Blank street while you are rebuilding. Name your while you are rebuilding. Name your figures, including two theatre tickets every night of the season."

"And, sir," began the other "gent," my company would like to make you a proposition for the use of the walls that may remain standing after the fire."

"Fire! Fire! What are you talking about?" The old man was completely nonplussed.
"Why, your place caught fire about two hours ago," said the first "gent"—cide which is the "And is gutted by this time," added the second "gent."
"Of course you'll give me the refusal riage of finance.

for billboards—remember the two theatre tickets!" yelled the first "gent" as the old man bolted for the stairs. What domestic article represents pillar of Greece? A candle.

Why can you be absolutely certain that a blacksmith is a horse? Because he is a horse, sure (horse-Why are geese imposters? Because there are a great many quacks among What game gives many persons cold? Draught. What game is affixed to baggage?

If you were the first letter of the alphabet, what country ought you to get your employes from? Servi-a.

Is there a country in which any letters of the alpahabet are musical? Well, there is Tuni-s.-Harper's Young Peo-

Her Stay in Paris, Mrs. D'Avnoo-I advertised for mum.
"Not very long, I guess."
"No, mum; Oi only shtayed long enough to get the accint."—New York Weekly.

He Was After a Bargain. She-Why do you ask me to marry you? You know I am rich, while you are very poor. He-Well, it takes two to make a well show their command over their faculties in any other way.

EVIDENCE OF INSANITY.

"Now, for instance, I knew a man once who had conducted an easy and prosperous business for years, was respected by all his friends and neighbors, had no financial difficulties worth speaking of, nothing to trouble his mind, was, in fact, as well-balanced a man as you could find in any community, yet one morning he was found hanging to a rafter in his wood-shed. And when his motive became known it convinced everybody that his head was as clear at the moment he fastened the rope around his neck as it had ever been in his life.

"What was his motive? Why, you see, he was a country editor and had written an obituary of an honored and respected citizen which closed with the words: "He died full of years." Somehow or other the thing came out in the paper reading, 'He died full of beers.' Now, what else could that editor de but go and commit suicide?"

and I'll show you a store was 5 get one."

"Can I leave Marier standin there?"

"If you think it necessary."

"It be."

"All right. Come along."

The accommodating broker conducted him to a stationery store and selected a guidebook for him; then, as he said he would like to look it over a spell before joining Marier, he left him to go up town.

"Nuthin' "was the calm reply.
"Horse sick?"
"Naw." 'Is he balky?"

"Then why don't you go on?"
"I'm goin'." And he put his foot on the hub of a front wheel and sprang to his seat and drove off at a sharp trot, and all the wondering crowd said as it looked after

Mrs. Wayupp—I sympathize with you eeply. It must be very painful to lose Business Competition.

Billboard competition must pretty high
Billboard competition and provided by the most provi

Pensive Pencilings. There's the same difficulty about peanuts this year that there has always been. After a well-meaning friend has given you one to eat, you aren't happy till you have gone yourself and bought

It will be easier for women to run for office, maybe, when bicycle knicker-bockers are the universal rule. Nobody has ever yet been able to decide which is the happier marriage, the one that is altogether a marriage of love or the one that is altogether a mar-

It is quite appropriate that washing day should follow Sunday. Cleanliness is next to godliness, you know. is next to godliness, you know.

The man who is always looking for a grievance is a grievance himself to other well-constituted people.

If every one would pay up his little bills, every one would have money now to buy Christmas presents with.

The proverb, "Make hay while the sun shines," after all, is incomplete. It should be: "Make hay while the summer sun shines," to be altogether right.

He—What! You can't go to the opera with me to-night? You promised to. She—I know, but it is impossible. He—Ha! I see it all. You love an-

She-Oh, no-no, indeed. He—Un, no—no, indeed.

He—Then you have determined to trample on your own heart and marry some man for his money. Ah! You shrink! You expect him to call this evening! Perfidious— She—Please, please don't. It is not

He—Then why won't you go?
She—I—I can't get my new coat on over the sleeves of my new dress. "Did you foreclose that mortgage on Johnson's mule?"

"Yes."
"What did he do?" "Kicked."
"Who? Johnson?"
"No! the mule!"

"Is my hat in your way?" inquired the sweet girl in the parquet seat, as she turned around and spoke to the

THE 'MONSTER'S' GREETING

To One and All Good Friends

"That's about it," replied the broker, still smiling and willing to humor him, though for the life of him he could not imagine what he was trying to get at.

"Well," said the stranger after pausing reflectively, "seems tew me yew oughter know somethin about it, big as it is.

"I ought," admitted the broker. "If there's anything I can do for you,I'll do it with pleasure."

"Well, there dew be some p'ints I guess yew could give me ez would be this. Down tew our town I was a sort of a all round sport an was pretty generally looked on as a devil of a feller, but up here I don't seem to be anythin. I tell yew, mister, I feel it—in hereyes."

"That is rather awkward," replied the broker. "If feel it—in hereyes."

"That is rather awkward," replied the broker, still she tired.

"I there countryman confidentially.

"He died full of beers. Now, what else could that editor do but go and commit suicide?"

Fooling a Crowd.

Fooling a Crowd.

The diev of a one-horse vehicle loaded with boxes halted on Gratiot avenue and got down and stood off a semi-annual inventory sale. Stock-taking comes at the end of this week, and big. How can we convince you that every Book, shoe, Slipper, Overshoe and Euber in this store will be idiculously chap? You have eyes, ears and fingers. Whether in this store will be idiculously chap? You have eyes, ears and fingers. Whether in this store will be identified the broker. "It's a case of bots!" added the second. "He's got the blind staggers, or I don't know anything about horses," put in a third.

The four or five pedestrians grew to five or 10, and 10 to 20 or 30.

The four or five pedestrians grew to five or 10, and 10 to 20 or 30. gifts, will be sacrificed regardless of cost Oversloes and rubbers will be slaughtered at from 50 to 60 per cent. less than rubber list prices, and in addition to this we present to every purchaser of $2.50 worth of boots or shoes a large beautifully-dressed doll, or choice of several other articles, such as boats, games work-boxes, money-banks, bugles, sleighnetc, etc. We will not mention prices as they will be so fixed that even the closest buyer will be more than surprised. All that we ask is for the public to come in, and we will take care that when they go out they will have made their purchases. All the world knows the establishment of Guinane Bros., Monster Shoe House, 214 Yonge-street.

REV. SAM JONES.

An amusing incident occurred at the close of Sam Jones' sermon at Pulaski the other day. Stepping down from the pulpit, folding his hands across his breast and looking solemnly over the audience, the great revivalist said:

KISSING DID IT.

Several Cases of Diphtheria in Dunkirk Were Caused by a Kiss After the Patient Had Been Well for

"There is but one case of diphtheria in the city at present, and that a very mild one," said Health Officer Jackson the other day. "The case is that of Charles Mehs, and he is rapidly recovering. Miss Klemann is recovered, but we will not allow her to go out yet. I had the house of Jacob Mehs fumigated to-day, and with care there will soon be no danger from that quarter.

"And do you know," said Dr. Jackson, "that the five cases of diphtheria, three of which were fatal, Mrs. Jacob Mehs, her two grandchildren, Mr. Charles Mehs and Miss Klemann, can be traced back to their origin, and that a kiss is responsible for them?" The Herald listener expressed ignorance of the fact, and Dr. Jackson said: Herald listener expressed ignorance of the fact, and Dr. Jackson said: "The diphtheria can be traced back to the first case, upon Pike street. There a physician con-tracted the disease and communicated it to a young lady patient on Gazelle Street, a Miss Dickinson. Two weeks Street, a Miss Dickinson. Two weeks after she was recovered and out of the house, she met one of the little Mebs children and kissed the child. Soon it was stricken, then Miss Kiemann, then the other Mehs child, then the grandmother, Mrs. Mehs, and lastly Charles Mehs.

had recovered, and were transmitted to the child by the kiss. Medical author-ities agree that diphtheria germs re-main in the throat for some time after the patient has recovered from the disease and can be easily transmitted through the habit of kissing. Of course

Cheap Rates Over the G.T.R. for Sir John Thompson's Funeral.
On Dec. 28, 29, 30 and 31 the Grand Trunk will sell return tickets from Toronto for $26.65, valid for return leaving Halifax on or before Jan. 4. Proportionate rates east and west of Toronto.

GAUNTLETS.

NO SHODDY GOODS.

Scotch Tweed $15.50 Suitings - - - $15.50 FOR ONE MONTH ONLY,

First-Class Pair of $3.75

TROUSERS - -

JOHN WATSON, 88 KING-ST.

close of Sam Jones' sermon at Pulaski the other day. Stepping down from the pulpit, folding his hands across his breast and looking solemnly over the audience, the great revivalist said:

"I want all the women in this crowd who have not spoken a harsh word or harbored an, unkind thought toward their husbands for a month past to stand up."

One old woman, apparently on the shady side of 60, stood up.

"Come forward and give me your hand," said the preacher.

The woman did so, whereupon, Jones said:

"Now turn around and let this audience see the best looking woman in the country."

The woman did so, whereupon, Jones said:

"Now turn around and let this audience see the best looking woman in the country."

The woman in the same than a sense of conviction sufficient to overcome my exerticism in regard to its being no bell recently in Harlem.

"What on earth is that?" he exclaimed. "Is the house on fire?"

"Somebody's dead," said his wife. In the mean time a servant was returning from answering the bell.

"Somebody's dead," said his wife. In the mean time a servant was returning from answering the bell.

"See me? Why, it's 3 o'clock in the morning."

"Important business, they says, sir."

"Mell should think it would bewarding an man up this time o' night, I'll have tog down, I suppose."

He quickly threw on some clothing and went below. Two 'igents' awaited aim in the hall,

"I beg your pardon, sir, for knocking ou up at this hour, but I want to make ou a proposition for bill-oards around."

"Somebody's dead," said his wife. In the mean time a servant was returning from answering the bell.

"Somebody's dead," said his wife. In the mean time a servant was returning from answering the bell.

"Somebody's dead," said his wife. In the mean time a servant was returning from answering the bell.

"In the mean time a servant was returning from answering the bell.

"I should be a wife the revivalist and permanent cure. For weeks and weeks I was fearfully and some and unkind thought toward their wives for a month to stand up."

Therefore an unkind thought toward their wives for a month to stand up."

Therefore an unkind thought toward their wives for a month to stand up."

Therefore an unkind thought toward their wives for a month to stand up."

Therefore an unkind thought toward their wives for a month to stand up."

Therefore an unkind thought toward their wives for a month to stand up."

The time the all the alacrity of champagane corks.

"Come forward and give me your lands, my dear boys."

Jones gave each one a vigorous shake, after which he result of receiving immediate relief and permanent cure. For weeks and weeks I was fearfully and solemnly, and realized a cure that is permanent cure. For weeks on the result of receiving immediate relief and permanent cure. For weeks of a month to stand up.

The truent seven geat big strappin

Suspenders. Slik Handkerchiefs.

DIXON'S.

Radical cure guaran-teed by the use of the Wilkinson Truss ROSSIN BLOCK, YORK-STREET, BELOW KING. TEL. 1685. B. LINDMAN.

Severe colds are easily cured by the use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, a medicine of extraordinary penetrating and healing properties. It is acknowledged by those who have used it as being the best medicine sold for coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs and all affections of the throat and chest. Its agreeableness to the taste makes it a favorite with ladies and children.

SWELL WINE.

Deutz & Geldermann's Gold Lack Sec
Champagne was the wine specially selected for the banquet given by the Royal Colonial Institute.

This school reopens Tuesday, Jan. 8, at 9 o'clock. Applications for admittance to the made to the undersigned or to the lead master at the school. W. H. LOCK-HART GORDON, Sec.-Treas., 175 Bayes

There terday Prospect played Club cu gin act good is and Pa also to the Domember engage man's ments the holes.

The York's

On C membered the Height prevail like a away. as a fer by on t away after engage condition 9 hi

Frantand, tation fighter of the Charle Peter Cooler and late of fig Englad Jackso great the re Craig provin land h

EST.

$31.