To any one desirous of witnessing the rkings of some of New York's most noble charities we would say, without hesi-tation, turn your attention to the provis-ion made for the sick poor by the city what some of their proprietors are saying—thisold dame, for instance, bent nearly double by a racking cough. The thin shawl drawn tightly over shoulders thin also, is seemingly all that keeps her together. 'Don't feel good," she says, 'today (which you would be willing to underwrite), but husband is real sick—been so since last May. We're used up what little money we had, but now, since he gets the beef-tea, it seems to bring him around. He is the case.'

Here is a good, honest-faced Gretchen.

She, or her representative, came a long time on behalf of a daughter eight years afflicted with 'neumatism. The Kitchen see aided her a year at its outset, then they told her she must do without their help as there were many, they felt, who might urge greater claims for assistance. However, the invalid missed it so much they determined to enter her name on their list again. One morning, as the mother redetermined to enter her name on their list again. One morning, as the mother resourced home with the little well-used pail of soup, she found the young girl in her accustomed seat in the sunshine deadstone dead; some one having, means while, placed a flowering pot-plant on a table near by her.

Think I'm doin' it to skear ve—but our denomination is tarnal poor, and a big contribution is jest what they're hank-erin' arter.'

'Oh, no; I cover your fifty, uncle, we ought to be liberal, you know,' and so the game went on, till finally the old man remarked, "Wall, I'd no idea I had this 'ere roll o' bills in my pocket—so you hev got four picters—three queens and a jack! Well, 'tis kinder queer I got t'other queen—haw! haw!'

'Yes, I'm sorry for you, but where are your other cards?' said the young man triumphantly.
