

the printing of the papers, pending correspondence from the editor.

They are now expected every day, and the October number will soon follow.

The next few numbers will be more curious and attractive than any previous ones.

In the September No. appears the reproduction of the 1st number dated May 1891.

Another page gives the condensed Chinook and English Vocabulary, all in one page, condensed, yet sufficient, for it contains all the essential words of the Chinook Jargon.

op lb.
p m d
l r s t f.
e z o.
l e b d h
r s . l z g
r s l b p m
o. - l r s
f.
—
op - r s
r s l b p m
b l r s l b
b . . - z ,
r s b z r
r s l b .
h r s g p
r s l b
b . . - g . z
r s b l b b
p r .