

natural enemies to the British flag. Talk about obedience to such laws as those now in force in Ireland: we would trample the laws of rebels under our feet!! Indeed we would!!! Are the natural rights of the loyal men in Ireland to be trifled with, and is there no court of appeal? If not, let us request the government just to annex the island to the Dominion of Canada, where freedom can be secured to all, both Romanists and Protestants.

Long may the Orange Chief live, and may his name be immortalized as the hero of July 12, 1867.

BANGOR AND NO SURRENDER.

AIR—"Boyne Water."

Shall Ulster furl the flag we bore
So proudly on to Bangor?
And shall she guide for evermore
Before the foeman's anger?
Let craven hearts to tyranny
Their coward homage render;
The watchword of the brave and free
Will still be "No surrender."

'Twas not in scorn, and not in hate,
We kept commemoration,
In honor of our hero great,
Who freed the British nation,
The hirelings who, with gilded lie,
Maligned, in slanderous manner,
Must learn that 'twas for Liberty
We rallied round our banner.

For Liberty for us—for all!
For rights we hold from Heaven!
Nor tyrants' threats shall us appal,
Till we our bonds have riven!
Let them not think—those traitor knaves
Who've climbed by us to power—
That we shall be of slaves the slaves,
Nor before bondsmen cower.

For we shall stand up, and we shall on,
With banners proudly flying;
The symbols of Fair Freedom's dawn,
And of a faith undying;
And we shall scorn, if scorn we must,
Our father's rights to tender;
And those who'd trample in the dust,
The men of "NO SURRENDER!"

WM. JOHNSON.

Downpatrick Jail, March, 1868.

The commission on the Established Church of Ireland will not issue their report before the end of the session. The petition to her Majesty from the Protestants of Ireland in favor of the Irish Church establishment was signed by 77,893.