Sparkles.

A TEACHER who had asked a girl to purchase a grammar received the following note from the little girl's mother: "I do not desire that Mattie shall engage in grammar, as I prefer her to engage in more youthful studies, and can learn her to speak and write proper myself. I went through two grammars, and I can't say as they did me no good. I prefer Mattie to engage in German and drawing and vok l music on the piano."

GENTLEMEN.—We have six children, and have relied on Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for the past twelve years in all cases of diarrhoea and summer complaints, and it never fails to cure.—MRS. ANNA ALLEN, Harley, Ont.

"SIR," said a fierce lawyer, "do you, on your oath, swear that this is not your handwriting?" "I think not," was the cool reply. "Does it resemble your writing?" "I can't say it does." "Do you swear that it does not resemble your writing?" "I do." "Do you take oath that this writing does not resemble yours?" "Y-e-s, sir." "Now, how do you know?" "Cause I can't write."

SIRS.—For several seasons we have relied on Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for all summer complaints. A few doses always give relief, and it never fails to cure. We think it is a very valuable medicine; as precious as gold.—MRS. F. C. WINGER, Font Hill, Ont.

DIDDEREAU: Did you attend the lecture of Professor Hardhead on "Grip, a Malady of the Imagination"? Biddereau: He did not lecture. Diddereau: Why not? Biddereau: Down with the grip.

LOCAL OPTION.—This term should be applied to the choice every intelligent person has between Burdock Blood Bitters, the natural and certain remedy for dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, headache and bad blood, and the various imitations offered by unscrupulous parties as being "just as good." There is nothing else as good as B.B.B. It is an honest medicine, and has made remarkable cures right in our own town.

TOMMY'S toilet.—Tommy (inquiringly): Mamma, is this hair-oil in this bottle? Mamma: Mercy, no! That's muckilage. Tommy (nonchalantly): I guess that's why I can't get my hat off.

DEAR SIRs,—I have used your Burdock Blood Bitters for biliousness and sick headache, and never neglect to praise it. It brings the flush of health to one's cheeks, and I recommend it highly.—ANNIE BEACH, Stevensville, Ont.

MRS. SWELL: Our house is fitted up with all the improvements and we have a picture moulding in the parlour. Mrs. Homespun: Sakes alive! But your house must be awful damp! To think of a picture moulding! It must be the paste, I s'pose.

GENTLEMEN.—My brother suffered from summer complaint, and was extremely weak. We tried many remedies, but without effect. At last my aunt advised us to try Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and before he had taken one bottle he was cured. We consider it saved his life.—MISS ADELAIDE CRITTENDEN, Baldwin, Ont.

It is stated in the papers that an Englishman advertises that he "will sell to ministers notes of deceased sermons at five shilling each." If such sermons have been bought and preached pretty generally, it will account for some of the deadness that is complained of in the Churches.

DON'T you think a medicine which cures others will cure you? Don't you think you need Burdock Blood Bitters to help you to health and happiness? We know B.B.B. cures despespsia, biliousness, constipation, headache and bad blood. Don't you think it is time you tried it?

GARFIELD Tea is, positively a cure for constipation and sick headache. All druggists sell it. Trial package mailed free. Address Garfield Tea Agency, 317 Church St., Toronto.

A PAT reply.—Customer (in a restaurant): See, here, waiter, I've found a button in this salad. Waiter: That is all right, sir; it is a part of the dressing.
