and his suite delaged. Limerick with vice during their residence there. As, that is one of the secondary curses of toreign dominion, of which the name is Legion. A extrem army, which please God Ireland will soon possess, is the centre of no victous system of corruption; and " A be no very material difference between the two Cheric," must bear, with whatever patience he can stranslations; but when considered attentively, muster, an infliction which we have fifty thousand reasons for believing is near its last day.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NATION.

Sin-I am told it is a fact that Prince George, who is burning to be at the Irish, threatens if as hortatory, or preceptive, and not declaratory; Dublin resist him, to full tack on the Park and in other words, they understand him as saying, burn the city with bombshells. The Conserva- 'Let marriage be honorable in all,' &c.; wheretives and neutrals ought to know the sauce with which they they are threatened. Tell them this say, "Marriage is honorable in all." In the that they may beware in time.

> Yours, Ρ.

A patriotic constable, whose name and address have been forwarded to us, sends the following Interesting "police intelligence."

" During the past ten years, I have sedulously devoted my time in cheiting individual opinion among my comrades, in Munster, Leinster, and Connaught, and I now feel satisfied in stating, that out of 12,000, 10,000 would, and will fix on bayonets, and vindicate the freedom of thier enslaved and suffering countrymen. The men are from profession cautious, and I must say even meanly so, in concealing a feeling which God has with reason, agreed that the ellipsis here is not implanted in all their hearts. At present, I est (is), but esto (let it be)." could not fin 120 amongst them that would come together, and avow their semiments. They are same sense "Ab ommbus conjugio sinus serveall determined enough, taking them singly, or tur honos."-(Let marriage be honored by all ') individually, on defending the rights of their | Lither thus translates it. "Die Ehe soll country; but bring four or more of them together, chrlich gehalten wereden bey allen, und das and a feeling of distrust is immediately preceptive Ehrbetto unbefieckt."-" Marriage shall be hie among them—they are afraid of each other, honorably observed in all, and the bed undefiled." and I rear will continue so, until one among The English version of this passage affords an themselves will holdly harangue them, ere long, under arms, in the period, or at the period of take his province, and may become an interpreter. smoke and excitement. I don't mean bottles of 'The Latin Vulgate and Donay version exactly Iteland to tear down the union-jack, and plant or fore him. Hence, the English version, is tice whatever of the suicide committed last week jobligation of remaining unmarried, it is not of by a British soldier at Ennistymon. He was much to say that the translator's judgment was under the command of a Captain Tuckey; and uninfluenced by the peculiar doctrines and prac- () Reilly, Geoghan, Bishop of Meath, and up the course of conduct which he had pursued because he would not be allowed to see his tices of the Reformers and the disciples, regardwife, who had died in childbed, or to be present ing such obligation. at her funeral, "the unhappy man" committed; suicide on parade.

THE BRITISH SOLDIER.

a proper degree of insensibility to this case; for whereas most Protestant expositors understand look you, what has a soldier-a British soldier-this of all persons, Catholic expositors generally to do with affection, in the service ! What right | understand it of all things, a meaning which, has his wife to he-in without leave from the commanding officer? But for her to die by the way, and which has the authority of the most eminent to the grave-why this was little short of a mutiny. 'No wonder twelve wise men, after sitting on the headless body of the poor private, returned a verdict of "shot himself in a fit of temporary msanity." "Insanity!" No doubt of it.

As to Captain Tuckey he may be consoled by knowing that he has conducted himself in this matter like a true British officer, and that no one would have displayed, under the circumstances. a more inditary indifference to the best feelings of human nature. He may rest assured no harsh that his ladder of promotion will not be a step the less.

This case will, we hope, be a lesson to all married military men.

The Duke of Wellington is a Repealer at last. The Dubin Herald, the most active organ of anti-Repeal in Ireland, declares that " rumours are now affoat in certain circles in London, that has Grace makes no secret of his opinion, that the time has now come for giving a constitution to Ireland." Yes, he or Peel will be the man to do it. No Whig would have the sense or courage.

Eight Sisters of Visitation have proceeded from Baltimore to Wheeling, U. S., for a new foundation at the latter place.

THE BED UNDEFILED."-Heb. xui , 4.

The above sentence of Scripture is thus trans ated in the notherised. English version (Protestant): " Marriage is honorable in all, and the hed undef.led." At firet sight, there appears to and, especially, when read in connection with what precedes and follows this sentence, in tho same chapter, an important difference is discovered. Many enument Protestant commentators agree in recognizing this expression of St. Paul as the authorized English version makes him original Greek, there is no verb expressed; and some commentators, taking the sontence as declaratory, supply the ellipsis by the indicative of the substantive verb, whereas others, taking it to be hortatory, or preceptive, supply the ellipsis by the imperative. That this latter is the more correct understanding of the pas sage, the following Protestant authorities will show. I must observe that, in the preceding verses, as also in those which follow the 4th verse, from which this passage is taken, the Apostle is giving commands or exhortations.

BLOOMFIELD says: "Since the whole passage is horiztory, the best expositors in general are

Suseum LLER understands the sentence in the

illustration of how easily a translator may mis-

With regard to the following words, "in all." as I am not writing a commentary on the passage Duffy's Magazine. The public has, we venture to say again shown I shall content myself with remarking, that, it might easily be shown, the context requires, and then for her husband to expend to attend her commentators of antiquity .-- A. E .-- St. Louis the Consul of the United States a private audia lem, with the title of Patriarch. Besides that ence on Saturday, 12th ult., to receive the ad-this subject is a man of distinction, you are dress of a large number of the citizens of New aware that friendly relations are made between York, to the Sovereign Pontiff, expressive cithe Ottoman Government and that of Rome their respect and admiration for the character of As. then, the Sublime Porte is wont to accord one who has done so much to promote the cause [its good will and to testify its regards to such of liberty in the pontifical States, and in Italy envoys, when occasion offers, we desire your generally. Major Smith, of New York, the Excellence to offer this personage the respect word will come to his par from his superiors, and hearer to Rome of this address, was presented to due to him, and to grant him such protection as North, W. H. Rae, Henry Moore, James Davis. the Pope, who expressed his warmest thanks to he may require." the citizens of New York, and his earnest wish for the continued prosperity of the whole American people.

> made their first communion in Cleveland, and one hundred and thirty six were confirmed in the same place by Right Rev. Bishop Rappe, on Sunday the 4th March .- Catholic Telegraph.

> MILITARY FRATERNISATION .- Tuesday evening a number of soldiers were passing up Wil liam street-they commenced shouting for Repeal! They said they were the men to stand to their countrymen, and that they need not be afraid of them (the soldiery) firing on them.— They gave three cheers for the success of the Confederates, and were much applauded as they passed up the street .- Southern Reporter.

CENTURY. Sad, indeed, was the condition of the Church

altar; dragged from their holes in the earth, ments to some dying sinner, and instantly put to bound in chains, and cast into prison in Lamerick; and neither threats nor promises were spared in order to induce hun to abandon the Catholic Faith. These however proving unavailing, he was harged, and his head being Journal, gives this graphic and stirring account taken off, was placed on a pike, and raised on the citadel, where it remained until after the restoration. About the same time, Egan, Bishop of Ross, was tortured and put to death in that town. He has for a long time been concealed in a cavern of a neighboring mountain; but, having left his retreat to visit a dying person, he was discovered on his return, and on his refusing to renounce the Faith, was given up to the fury of the Puritan soldiery. His arms were struck off his body on the spot, and he was then brought to a neighboring tree, amid the years and scoffs of his tormenters, and there hanged or one of the branches by the reins of his own his sufferings by being hanged. His bowels head was placed on a pole in the public mark to his enemies. Of the other prelates, to refer an extert were the beastly bellowings of the caped at Ghent, where he ded on the 23 feet lendy ed felly four hundred " popular represenafter being hunted for a long time through the mentage expectation of finding some of "those mountains of Tippeary, at length for an asy-time old Highshi contemanty legislators exerlum at Compostella, .: Spain. The B. I go of compather physical provess in an antagonistic smoke -but bullets with fire and smoke. Under represent the original text, and leave to the Cork and Cloyne, and of Waterfo dand his note, amount r with the hon, member for Limerick. the protection of the God of battles and by his reade; the same facility of supplying the ellipsis, fled to Nantz; the Bishops of Line hand Pen convey any adequate idea of the divine aid, I fervently hope to be the first man in as he would have had were the original be-Raphoe, to Brussels; the B.shop of Chanton to tank bathar sm of this degrading exhibition. The Hungary; the Bishop of Leighlia, to G Piers, Lowling of hungry welves in the Zoological erect the green flag of Ireland on the Castle, doubly fau' y, in supplying the ellipsis, and in the Bishop of Killalos, to Rennes, in Britaines. Gardens frintly resembled the yells which were This is no enthusiasm-it is the cool, deliberate badly supplying it, as the best expositors are the Bishop of Kilfenora, to Normance, and the hornered against Mr O'Brien; but he treated resolve made years ago, and never altered, nor agreed. When we recollect how frequently this Bishop of Kilmacdua was screened by his fermis them with deserved disdain, and unintimidated, never shall, with God's assistance, be ahered by text is quoted, against the principle of the Ro- in England.—(Elenchus, Episcop a Nahal, he adopted all those sentiments which the Seman Catholic Civirch, regarding the superior Fernensi, quoted at length in the Hacened December of the Home Department-adverting merit of a life of celibary, and the unlawfulness minicana, p. 389, and following.) Besides there, to the proceedings of the Irish Confederatesof marriage in those who, either by vow or by John Burke, Archbishop of Tram, Part & more than once instituted he would be afraid to "The public" has very properly taken no no- receiving holy orders, have taken on them the Plunkett, Bishop of Ardagh, and every other axew in the House of Commons. Sir George prelate in the kingdom, were forced to fly from Grey shivered his an aspen leaf while Smith it, with the exception of the Primate, Hugh O'Brien re-asserted his fixed resolution to follow M Sweeny, Bishop of Kilmore, who, however, for months past; and you will not fail to observe was disqualified by age and infirmity from dis- that amid the most prolonged cheering he delicharging any of the functions of his office .- | verc | one of those violent anti-Irish flippancies

THE LEVANT.

despatch, dated January, 13, 1848, with regard See to the Patriarchate of Jerusalem :-" The most illustrious Pope has chosen and sent a sub-AMERICANS AND THE POPE -Pope Plus gave ject of his call d Valerga, to reside at Jerusa-

> THE ITALIAN CHERGY .- The greatest enthuthe cause of national independence. At Milan, the banner of Italy in one hand and a crucifix in Calvert, S. Eakins, G. Dawson, &c. the other. At Mantua the Bishop summoned the Governor to surrender the citadel, and saved movement. "To whom does it belong," he testant body the next week - Pro-1-12 4.

And he adds, that Prince George of Cambridge | MARRIAGE HONORABLE IN ALL AND | PERSECUTION IN THE SEVENTEENTH | asks, " to raise civil and social virtues to the elevation of Christian morality, to stamp them with the form and dignity of religion, if not to the and people of Ireland at this period. The young Priest !! He appoints charitable subscriptions and the old-the venerable Bishop and the in all parts of his diocese, and entreats the Clore youthful Priest were torn from under the very gy to take the initiative in that hely work. This circular excited great enthusiasm in the people. where they burrowed like vermin; or caught as They flocked in crowds to the Episcopal palace, they crept from them to administer the sacra- crying "Viva Monsignor Ricardi " "Viva the zealous preacher of fraternal charity and patrideath. O'Brien, Bishop of Emly, was in 1661, otic love " "Viva Pio Nono!" "Viva Julio Il "-- Universe of the bearing of Smith O'Brien before the foreigu Parliament -

SMITH O'BRIEN'S SPEECH IN PARLIA-MENT.

"Smith O'Brien's manly statement in the English Senate to night, and his unequivocal expression of determination on the part of the people of Ireland to achieve their nationality, no matter what extent of brute force may be opposed to their well-directed agitation, will be read throughout Ireland with feelings of unmixed satisfaction. Anything more disgraceful than the reception which the hon, member for Limerick experienced could not possibly be conceived. The house was densely crowded from an early hour, and the instant Mr. O'Brien stood up to : 2180 Emir Mathew, Bishop of Clogher, being coppose the second reading of the nefarious coerloaded with irons, was cast into a dungoon in case measure, introduced nominally for the Enniskillen, where he was at length freed from purpose of better securing the crown and govcrament of Great Britain, he was assailed with were afterwards torn out and burned, and he the most violent bursts of yelling which lasted joils ten minutes, and throughout his really Arthur Maginnis, Bishop of Down, being old magnificent address, the most during attempts and infirm, died at sea, endeavering to except their mane to hoot him down. Indeed, to such brated Nicholas French, Bishop of Parliament Cornell Rouse of Parliament carried-so vio-August, 1678. Walsh, Archbish p of Collab. taixes conduct themselves, that I was in most

which nightly emanate from the treasury benches. Fvery sentence was applauded to the echo. Would to heaven that the Irish people, Protest-THE PATRIABER OF JURUSALEM .- The Sultan ant, Catholic, and Presbyterian, could have withas sent to the Pasha of Jerusalem the following nessed the savage scene enacted this night, and the insult offered to their interests. Had they to Mgr. Valerga, recently appointed by the Holy | been speciators of Mr. O'Brien's reception, the question of Ireland's nationality was gained, or Irishmen and slaves are synonymous terms."

PROTESTANT FEELING.

Deconeda.-On Thursday evening week a numerous and respectable meeting of the Protestant inhabitants of Drogheda was held in the Mayoralty rooms

About eight o'clock there were upwards of a hundred and twenty Protestants in the room; amongst whom we noticed-Messrs. Thomas Surgeon Ellis, James Moore, J. T. Rowland, solicitor; Isaiah Moore, Robert B. Daly, Wm. Moore, J. Shea, R. M'Alister, John Shaw, W. siasia has been shown by the Italian Clergy in B. Hudson, A. Smith, J. Harvey, J. Reilly, J. Williams, Henry Bagnall. J. Appleyard, Wm. Diocese of Cleveland. -Sixty children lately the Archbishop was seen at the barricades with Beddy, T. Neill, W. Singleton, T. Apperson, J.

They met to discuss the question of Repeal. Several resolutions condemnatory of the governhis life by obliging him to put on the Italian ment, and the present lamentable condition to cockade. At Turin, the Canons and Curcs opened which they have reduced the country, were a subscription in aid of the families, members of adopted; also, the meeting approved of the which had taken arms to succour the Lombards, address to the Lord Lieutenant which appeared From one end of Italy to the other it is the in our columns last week; but, as the meeting same. The Bishop of Sarona has addressed an was not publicly convened, the resolutions were elegent circular to his clergy, asserting the duty afterwards withdrawn that they might be subof the Priesthood to take part in this great mitted to a more general meeting of the Pro-